SECTION 1: BACKGROUND

1.1 MISSION: LIVES OF LEARNING AND SERVICE

---

We are a team with a task (to quote the school's founder), which is helping our students prepare for lives of learning and service (to quote our mission statement).

MISSION STATEMENT

Four Rivers Charter Public School is dedicated to educating young people for lives of learning and service. The school offers a rigorous college preparatory program aligned with the Massachusetts curriculum frameworks and an emphasis on character development for moral and social responsibility. Three central themes -- nature, technology and community -- guide teaching and learning at the school, engaging students and teachers in a fundamental question of our times: how do we find the healthy, sustainable interrelationship of the natural world, technology in its many forms, and the human community? The school works closely with parents and seeks both to serve and to learn from the many resources of Franklin County.

In its charter application, the school identified the following purposes:

Academic

To provide a solid preparation in the core academic disciplines so that students are prepared for college, work or other post-secondary opportunities and that they perform successfully on MCAS and other assessments; to foster clear, enlivened thinking, in which questions are embraced with openness and wonder, answers are sought with rigor and respect for truth, and collaboration with others is encouraged; and to develop the skills and attitudes for lifelong learning.

Character

To help students recognize their own "genius," the particular strengths they bring; to develop abilities to work and play cooperatively with others; to awaken students to their moral compass by emphasizing the virtues of courage, respect, responsibility and compassion; and to train students in the process of making healthy choices.

Themes

To engage deeply and creatively in study and fieldwork involving the school's three themes of nature, technology and community, as they appear within our immediate community and more widely in our culture; and to develop projects or proposals demonstrating balanced and sustainable interworking of these themes.

Service to the Franklin County community

To provide an educational alternative to students of Franklin County and their families; as part of the school's program to seek opportunities for service to and participation in the community life, businesses and natural resources of the county; and with time to provide educational programs and models that may be of help to other schools and individuals in the area.

1.2 FOUR COMMITMENTS

To fulfill our mission, the school is guided by four basic commitments we have articulated to students, parents and the community, and by our powerful affiliation with Expeditionary Learning Schools.

Expect the best

Four Rivers expects high levels of achievement in academic learning, effort, and teamwork. We challenge students to dig deeper and work harder than most have done before. With talented and enthusiastic teachers, our program seeks to prepare every student for college. The curriculum grows from the Massachusetts curriculum frameworks, with an emphasis on excellence in reading, writing and math, ensuring readiness for the MCAS. Its real energy comes from teachers working with small classes to develop challenging projects, through which students learn essential knowledge, skills, and values. They teach with clear standards for top quality work, respect for individual differences, and the conviction that every student can and wants to strive for the best.

Learn by doing

At Four Rivers, learning is active, not passive. Meaningful, engaging projects are central to our curriculum. Several times a year classes go on “learning expeditions”: in-depth investigations of a theme or topic, guided by questions, and which may extend from four to six or more weeks. Students do original research and fieldwork, often involving experts in the community. Expeditions promote responsibility and collaboration; they speak to diverse learning styles, reveal new strengths, and deepen understanding. Typically, learning expeditions end with the students producing work—a report, a publication, a presentation—that has a real purpose and a real audience.

Explore big questions

The school’s themes of nature, technology and community engage teachers and students in basic questions that promote active learning and bring them in touch with our area and our times. What does the natural world have to teach us? What does technology, and the creative power of invention behind it, offer us? How do they work together for the good of all? There is endless learning to be explored -- and a cause to be served -- in our themes. Our answers can shape the future, here in Franklin County and in the world beyond.

Build character and community

At Four Rivers, the development of character and community are as important as academic achievement. Our school is small, with a place for everyone. Every student is known; each is valued as bringing a unique gift to the school. All of us are called on to think and act for the common good. Through our advisory program and our curriculum, we guide each student’s quest for the strength of character and insight to make healthy choices and set positive goals. We encourage student leadership and initiative in helping one another, strengthening our school, and serving the community beyond. We emphasize six character virtues, and we also have a clear code of conduct, with no tolerance for behavior that is unsafe or hurtful to an individual or the community.

1.3 A COLLEGE PREPARATORY PROGRAM

Four Rivers prepares students to go to and be successful in college. To us, being prepared for college means students can think and learn independently and that they understand essential knowledge of core disciplines to continue their learning.

We believe that every one of our students can succeed in college and we work hard to convey that message. The value of college in today’s world is clear. In the most respectful way, we look at our students and say to them, “There’s more in you than you know. Go for it!”

There is a whole range of colleges and other avenues of further learning ahead for our graduates, and there are exciting possibilities for every one of them. Our job is to help them find the right next steps.

A recent study based largely on interviews with college professors describes what students need in order to succeed in college. They are the kinds of skills and habits that Four Rivers works to build:

One of the most dominant themes raised by participants is the importance of the habits of mind students develop in high school and bring with them to university studies. These habits are considered by many faculty members to be more important than specific content knowledge. The habits of mind include critical thinking, analytic thinking and problem solving; an inquisitive nature and interest in taking advantage of what a research university has to offer; the willingness to accept critical feedback and to adjust based on such feedback; openness to possible failures from time to time; and the ability and desire to cope with frustrating and ambiguous learning tasks. Other critical skills include the ability to express one's self in writing and orally in a clear and convincing fashion; to discern the relative importance and credibility of various sources of information; to draw inferences and reach conclusions independently; and to use technology as a tool to assist the learning process rather than as a crutch.

(From the Introduction to "Understanding University Success: A report from Standards for Success", a project of the Association of American Universities and The Pew Charitable Trusts")

Colleges are interested in more than just test scores. Learning through the practices of Expeditionary Learning (EL) can open doors to skills that make a difference in college. EL schools offer opportunities to test ideas, to explore interests, to build relationships, and to learn independently in all the ways mentioned above. We provide ways for students to experiment before they have to enter the world outside of Four Rivers and our graduates have important assets to offer. Students have reported back to us about what they felt prepared for and what they didn't. They have not only learned with depth vs. breadth, but also felt prepared to engage.

The bottom line: Expeditionary Learning is college preparatory.

1.7 GLOSSARY OF FOUR RIVERS TERMINOLOGY

Character Virtues – Respect, Responsibility, Courage, Compassion, Perseverance and Integrity; Qualities we hope to help our students develop, understand and embody. Our faculty of course model this as well.

Conference Room – the room at the bottom of the stairs, at the front of the farmhouse, across from Amy Wales’ and Leslie Taylor’s offices

Community Meeting – A meeting of two or more grade levels that happens once a week using the community meeting format (see community meeting section)

Crew – A group of 10-12 students with a faculty advisor. (see Advisory section)

Currents – Our monthly school newsletter containing updates and pictures from classroom teachers, news and upcoming events

Division - A group of two grades. Division I = middle school grades 7 and 8, Division II = lower high school grades 9 and 10, Division III = upper high school grades 11 and 12.

Draft - a first version or first attempt at a project or process. Often used at Four Rivers to describe a not-so-great, still-needs-improvement, but darn-it-we-pulled-it-off-at-least-a-little-bit-right attempt at a new aspect of our school traditions, culture or event.

Local Education Council (formerly Family Council - The council is organized in coordination with the school administration. Activities include planning and overseeing non-academic school functions, from community potlucks to service projects on campus and organizing after-school activities. Check “Currents” and/ or the School Events calendar or meetings and Coffee with the Principal.

Farmhouse – the building that houses administrative offices, meeting room, Gardner room and project room; so called because the original house and property were the Myers Farm.

Fieldwork - We do not call them “field trips” here because when we go out into the world, it is not just to have a look around or a guided tour, it is to go out to get our questions answered or collect data, or move a project forward. (We do occasionally schedule fun field trips, but our main focus is on field work).

FLASH -- Weekly newsletter sent by email with important updates.

Gardner Room – the Library, named for John and Carol Gardner, mentors and friends to several of the school’s founders and benefactors to the school.

Homework Club – contrary to popular belief, this is not a euphemism for detention. Homework club is a place to get homework done. Some stay because their parents need to pick them up at a later time, some stay because it is a part of a school success plan worked out by parents and teachers, etc.. It is held Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday (1:30-3:30), and Thursday from 3:15-5:15. There is an hourly fee.

HOWLs - Habits of Work and Learning - students receive HOWL grades for standards related to participation, preparation, and organization.

Individual Learning Opportunities (ILOs) -- Students in Division 3 can propose Independent Studies, Internships, and Alternative Tribes as part of their course of study.

Indoor Action- A big bubble in Bernardston that covers an indoor fieldhouse. Since we have no gymnasium, this has been the place where our kids are bussed for after school winter sports.

Morning Meeting – A meeting with the teachers and students of one grade level in the Middle School.

Opening – a 5-10 minute activity, song, reading, game or discussion brought to faculty meeting to open the conversation. The faculty rotates this responsibility and each person brings their own creativity, talents and flair to the task.

Passage Presentation – end-of-year student presentation of work and growth done every 2 years to pass from division to division.

Porch – Small glassed-in area adjacent to the farmhouse library and connected to it by 2 doors. The porch is currently used as a classroom for Title 1 services.

Portfolio – a neatly presented collection of drafted and revised student work and reflections that shows the best quality work that the student has achieved during a given year or division. A crucial part of assessment at Four Rivers.

Polaris Awards – Weekly awards presented at community meeting to students who demonstrate or embody one of the character virtues. The story of the award is told carefully and clearly in a Community Meeting, revealing all of the reasons for the award before revealing the name of the recipient.

Presentations of Learning – Events where students show off their best work.

Project Room – also called the art room, but called the project room because it has functioned as a shop, band room, rehearsal studio, and yes, even a lunch room!

Recess – a break from the academic day in the Middle School, supervised by faculty.

Reflection – activities designed to help participants think about the quality of a process or product and what makes it so. If you ask any student at Four Rivers, we make them do this way too much... that is what we like to hear!

River Sections - Each grade in Div I and II is divided into classes which travel together for a semester (these groups may or may not be rearranged at the discretion of the grade-level teams and within the confines of the schedule). Because of our school name, we have named these class groups according to the four rivers. So far, it has been that the first grade in any division used Green and Millers while the second grade in a division uses Connecticut and Deerfield.

Scaffolding - steps taken to guide and support students through challenging assignments. Breaking down challenging or complex tasks into smaller more doable steps.

Standards -- Course by course, we define the long-term learning targets we expect our students to reach. Standards define the skills and knowledge we want our students to acquire through their learning.

Stepping In -- At the end of our first few days of school, otherwise known as Orientation, we have a ceremony to symbolize everyone coming together to form our new our new community for the year ahead. Thus, we all “step in” to the school and its culture.

Stepping Up – NOT “graduation” (that is reserved for seniors) but our last-day-of-school celebration of accomplishments and tradition of recognizing that students are moving to the next grade. During the ceremony students are called to the front one-by-one to turn over their portfolios to their teachers for the next year, be recognized for earning honors or distinction and have a few, brief words said about them by their current advisor.

Tributary classes – In keeping with our river theme, our “specials” (Nature, Technology, Music and Art) are called Tributaries, with the idea that skills learned through these classes “feed into” the overall flow of a student’s academic experience.

SECTION 2: ACADEMIC POLICIES AND PROGRAMS

2.1 GRADUATION POLICIES

Graduation from Four Rivers marks an end and a beginning. It is the moment when students complete their learning under our guidance; it's also when they head off into the world of college, work, and citizenship. These are the requirements and policies for graduation from Four Rivers.

PART 1: COMPLETE ALL CREDIT REQUIREMENTS

The GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS CHECKLIST provides the Board approved specific requirements for graduation.

Residency: Eleventh graders must take at least four of their core academic courses each term at Four Rivers, allowing them to take 1 or 2 courses outside Four Rivers. Twelfth graders must take at least two of their courses each semester at Four Rivers. There is an exception for accredited academic programs away from Four Rivers.

Students in Division 3 may earn credits towards graduation in the following ways:

1. Four Rivers courses
2. Independent Studies -- Independent studies must follow the format and criteria described in the Independent Study Contract, to be approved by the Assistant Principal.
3. Accredited Classes and Programs (i.e. GCC or online courses or other established, formal programs through other institutions) – This is an option for those students who want to pursue college-level work, earn additional credit, or need to make up credit deficiencies to ensure timely graduation. Students may not replace a course that is already offered at Four Rivers. The Principal determines how much credit transfers to Four Rivers.
4. Internships: Learning through the world of work -- Students may earn elective credit for internships or other activities outside of school that are related to academic subject matter. For example, a student might volunteer as an assistant in a pre-school, have an internship in a machine shop, or work as a volunteer in the local fire department. Students who wish to earn credit must complete an Internship Contract, to be approved by the Assistant Principal.

Alternative Tribs -- Students involved in classes or activities out of school that focus on the arts, technology or nature may replace Four Rivers Trib classes. Students must complete an Alternative Tribs Contract, to be approved by the Assistant Principal.

Approval Deadlines: Students who want to apply for Independent Studies, Internships, or other classes during semester 1 of Junior or Senior year must have approval from Academic Support Director in place by August 15. For semester 2, the deadline is January 1.

Making up credits: students in Div II and III do not have to make up the exact standards they missed. They have to make up the credit in the subject area – a student may make up science credits with a different science course.

Junior Internships may be completed during the summer before Junior year with permission from the Assistant Principal by June 15.

Early Graduation: Students wishing to graduate early must submit an Early Graduation Plan to the Principal by June 15 of sophomore year. Specific milestones will need to be met along the way in order to progress toward an earlier graduation.

Transition plans developed as part of IEP plans will be used to guide academic planning and the inclusion of credit-worthy alternatives to coursework.

Special Permissions: Students may apply to the Principal for exceptions to these policies.

PART 2: COMPLETE JUNIOR INTERNSHIP AND SENIOR EXPEDITION

The Junior Internship has three purposes: to help prepare students for the independent work required for Senior Expeditions; to provide students with an opportunity to design a project that springs from their passions or interests; and to support students as they begin the process of thinking about and preparing for the college application process. The Junior Project begins in the fall, when students identify one or more fields they are interested in exploring. Once students have identified potential internship sites, they go through the steps necessary to set up their internships: make introductory phone calls to potential mentors, set up interviews, and complete internship agreements. Internships take place at the end of the first semester. Students complete a brief, focused research project related to the field they have selected for internships. Students include an overview of the field and a visual display in their final Junior Project presentations at Expo Night in the spring.

Senior Expedition – described fully in the SENIOR EXPEDITION GUIDE – is the culmination of our program. It involves creating a high quality product and making a public presentation. It is designed by the student in conjunction with an advisor and other Four Rivers faculty, and is structured as a learning expedition, with essential questions, fieldwork, specific projects/work named, and the final product. The senior expedition is intended to meet the requirement that a learning expedition address a real-world problem, have an authentic audience and result in a product that is of use in the world beyond the school. The working model is that students plan their senior expedition in the beginning of the year: choose a topic, do the research and writing throughout the fall, identify and enlist experts to learn from, and set up of field work. Towards the middle of the year, students do their fieldwork and towards the end of the year, students create the final products, then design and deliver a presentation of what they have learned.

PART 3: COMPLETE A GRADUATION PORTFOLIO

As with other passages at the end of Division I and Division II, completing Division III involves the most important passage of all – a demonstration of readiness to graduate.

To complete the Graduation Portfolio, students follow the same process and requirements as the regular portfolio process, plus two additional components:

1. The Post Four Rivers Plan
2. Documentation of Service: Students in 11th and 12th grade are required to complete and document 20 hours of independent service work both years.

EARLY GRADUATION APPROVAL PROCESS

Some students work very hard in high school, take extra classes, pass all the classes they take, and decide they want to graduate early. In general, Four Rivers does not support early graduation. Most students need four years to fulfill the full requirements. In addition, every student contributes value to the school by being part of the school community. Nevertheless, in extraordinary circumstances, a student may wish to be considered for early graduation. The following procedure has been adopted by the FRCPS Board of Trustees.

1. Any student considering early graduation must apply before the end of their 10th grade year. This is necessary to insure that it is a thoughtful and intentional process and to consider how the requirements will be accelerated and met by the end of the 11th grade. Applications for graduating in the middle of the senior year are not accepted and waivers of this are unlikely.
2. The student who is applying has to compose a narrative document describing thoughtfully and in detail how an early graduation will benefit them educationally. What exactly do they plan to do with the time that would have been spent at Four Rivers?
3. The narrative has to have the written signature endorsements of their Advisor, the College Counselor, their parents (whether or not they will have reached the age of 18) and the Principal.
4. The document must be sent to the Academic Leadership Team for review and consideration. The Team will review it and then invite the student to come before it to answer any questions it may have. The Academic Leadership Team will then vote to approve or disapprove the request.
5. ALL graduation requirements must be fully met including all coursework and academic credit requirements, Junior Internship, and Senior Expedition. These are all part of the academic design of the Four Rivers program and are evidence of having finished that program successfully.

HiSET/GED INFORMATION

A student is eligible to take the tests to receive a General Equivalency Diploma if they meet the following requirements:

1. Minimum Age For Testing: 18 with no qualifications; however, in order to register and be tested at 16 or 17, registrants must provide a letter from their last school of attendance attesting that they have officially withdrawn from school. (Letter of Withdrawal)
2. Residence: Applicant must be a resident of Massachusetts; last attended secondary school in Massachusetts; or proof of continued residence in Massachusetts while in the U. S. Armed Forces. (Military personnel assigned to Massachusetts or members of their families residing with them are also eligible through DAN TES). Out-of-State resident may test if there is space at a Test Center; however, transcript of their test scores will be sent to their home state for issuance of the equivalency diploma or certificate.
3. School Status: Individual may not be enrolled in any elementary or secondary school program or have received a diploma or certificate indicating they have received a high school credential.

2.2 PROMOTION POLICIES

These policies describe what is required to move forward to the next grade. Every student's situation is somewhat different, so final decisions are made on a case by case basis with the Principal.

7th to 8th: Pass all standards in order to be promoted. Standards not passed must be made up in order to move on to the next grade. A student must pass at least  $\frac{2}{3}$  of all core class standards to be eligible for summer make-up and promotion.

8th to 9th: Pass all standards and Passage requirements in order to be promoted. Standards not passed must be made up in order to move on to the next grade. A student must pass at least  $\frac{2}{3}$  of all core class standards to be eligible for summer make-up and promotion.

9th to 10th: Pass most (all but 4) credits in required classes in order to be promoted. Credits not passed must be made up in order to move on to the next grade. Must be no more than 4 credits in the hole to start 10th grade.

1. Credit make-up through summer school.
2. Credit make-up through online courses.

1. Credit make-up through summer school.
2. Credit make-up through online courses.
3. Credit make-up through Individual Learning Opportunities – possible, though discouraged.

Notes

2.3 SPANISH PROGRAM POLICIES

SPANISH GRADUATION REQUIREMENT

1. The Board-approved graduation requirements include 2 years of Spanish (12 credits).

DIVISION 1: SPANISH or TITLE 1

1. Students in Division 1 have the opportunity to complete Spanish 1 over the course of 7th and 8th grade, allowing them to take Spanish 2 in 9th grade and Spanish 3 in 10th grade.
2. Students who are eligible for Title 1 services may be recommended for a Title 1 skills class in place of Spanish 1. These students would then begin Spanish in 9th grade. Because high school Spanish starts with Spanish 2, these students are strongly encouraged to take a Spanish 1 class over the summer, though some students have successfully jumped in.

EXCEPTIONS FROM THE SPANISH REQUIREMENT

1. By Plan: Students who are eligible for Special Education, 504 plans, or English as a Second Language instruction may be exempted from the school's Spanish requirement by their IEP, 504, or ESL Plan. At the discretion of the Director of Academic support, students on SSP's may be granted an exemption under extenuating circumstances and with the acknowledgement of the family that their child will not be meeting the admissions criteria for Massachusetts state colleges.
2. Entering in 10th grade: Students entering 10th grade may try to complete Spanish 1 or 2 through online or summer programs in order to take Spanish 3 upon entering. Entering students may also be exempted from the Spanish requirement for graduation if they complete 2 years of another language or choose Title 1 instead.
3. Entering in 11th grade: Students entering 11th grade are exempted from the school's Spanish requirement. They may meet the graduation requirement by successfully completing two years of any foreign language. Given most college's requirement that a student have 2-3 years of a world language, students will be encouraged to meet this requirement if they have not done so prior to coming to Four Rivers.

REMEDICATION or ACCELERATION

1. Students who have not completed Spanish 1 by the end of 9th grade or Spanish 2 by the end of 10th grade must take Spanish over the summer to get them on track for the next level. Four Rivers does not offer Spanish 1 to 10th graders or Spanish 2 to 11th graders. If this requirement is not met, students will have to complete the Spanish requirement at their own expense in order to be eligible for graduation.
2. Four Rivers Spanish Summer School (when offered): Students who fail 1-3 standards during a year may make up those standards through this program.
3. Online Spanish Courses: Students who fail more than 3 standards a year or who wish to accelerate may do so through an online program approved by the school. Contact the Academic Support Director for information about approved programs.

2.4 SPECIAL EDUCATION EVALUATION AND PLACEMENT PROCEDURES

The following are procedures for the evaluation and placement of students who need or are believed to need special education or related services pursuant to Section 504 and Title II.

1. Four Rivers Charter Public School (FRCPS) will conduct a thorough evaluation, by trained professionals of any student suspected of having a disability. The timely evaluation will be conducted before the student's initial placement and prior to a subsequent significant change in placement.
2. If a parent of a FRCPS student requests a Section 504/IEP evaluation, a team meeting will be held to determine what the suspected disability is and what evaluation shall be undertaken to determine whether the student is eligible under Section 504 and what, if any, special education and related aids and services the student may need.

3. FRCPS will collect all evaluative data concerning a student's suspected disability and will not delay an evaluation while waiting for relevant information from a parent or agency.
4. All assessments and evaluations will be administered by trained personnel and will be reliable and valid for the purposes for which they are used.
5. In making eligibility decisions, the team will determine whether a student has a mental or physical impairment that substantially limits one or more major life activities.
6. All placement decisions will be made by professionals who are knowledgeable about the student, the evaluation data and the placement options.
7. All placement decisions will be based on information from a variety of sources, with information from all sources being carefully considered and documented.
8. All students who are determined to be in need of a 504 Accommodation Plan or IEP will be evaluated every three years, prior to any change in placement or before being exited from a 504 or IEP.
  - a. FRCPS will adhere to all timeframes as outlined by 603 CMR 28.00 Special Education Regulations. We will use those time frames to guide our timely evaluation and team meetings of our students who may be or who are eligible for 504 Plans.
  - b. Parents will be provided with procedural safeguards at each decision point regarding identification, evaluation and placement of a student.

2.5 GCC/VIRTUAL HS POLICIES

Taking GCC courses for Four Rivers credit:

1. Students must first check with Mr. Stenson and have him sign off on the course.
2. If students register for a course Mr. Stenson has not approved, they might not receive Four Rivers credit for it.
3. The Family Council offers scholarships for students taking GCC courses. Application information can be picked up at the School Office.
4. Students must pass a GCC course with a grade of C+ or better in order to receive Four Rivers credit.

Going to and coming back from GCC classes:

1. Students leaving for GCC may sign out 10 minutes before their class begins and sign back in no later than 15 minutes after the class has ended. Special circumstances need to be approved by the Principal.
2. Students must sign out before they leave school and sign in again when they return.
3. Students who repeatedly fail to sign in and out will not be granted permission to take GCC courses in subsequent terms.

Taking VHS courses:

1. Four Rivers offers a limited number of slots in Virtual High School (VHS) courses every term. These allow students to take electives beyond the school's core program.
2. To have a VHS course replace a Four Rivers graduation requirement, students must first check with Mr. Stenson to verify that the course meets the requirement.
3. Students are eligible for up to 1 VHS slot per term.
4. Slots are awarded by lottery, with preference given to students who have not previously

- used a Four Rivers slot.
5. Parents must sign the VHS course agreement. Part of this agreement says that if a student does not pass the class, the family must reimburse the school for the cost of the course.
  6. Students must pass a VHS course with a grade of C+ or better in order to receive Four Rivers credit.

2.6 INTENSIVES PRIVILEGE

Over the years, Intensives at Four Rivers have grown into an important and valued part of our high school program. Students have experienced the wilderness, New York City, theater, mural painting, sword fighting, Spanish, rock climbing, philosophy, and much more. Intensives are also a privilege. It takes a great deal of adult trust and student responsibility for this program to work.

Therefore, we have put in place the following checks to determine whether a student is eligible to participate:

1. Academics: Any student who has failed or is in danger of failing 3 or more standards or credits for the current semester must sign up for the Academic Support Intensive. Students who are deficient credits are encouraged to use Academic Support Intensive to make up those credits. Seniors who are deficient credits must make a plan for making up those credits and may be required to join the Academic Support Intensives offered during Intensives sessions as part of that plan.
2. Behavior: Students who have not been able to follow school rules or abide by adult authority sometimes are potentially not safe on trips that take them overnight or away from campus. Any student who has received 5 or more blue slips in the current semester or who receives 3 or more blue slips in the weeks leading up to Intensives may not be eligible to attend overnight intensives or intensives involving activities that require being able to follow instructions. If a student has shown significant improvement, this requirement will be waived by the agreement of the Dean of Students, advisor, and parents.

Descriptions of the Intensives are sent out to families prior to the sign-up period. We trust families to work together to make decisions about what Intensives would be the best choices for their student. Please be sure to contact the Dean of Students as soon as possible if you have a concern or question about your student's ability to participate in an Intensive.

SECTION 3: BEHAVIOR POLICIES AND PROGRAMS

3.1 CHARACTER VIRTUES

School culture is shaped by the accumulation of thousands of day to day interactions. How students are with each other, how teachers are with students, how students are with teachers, and much more all contribute to creating culture. We work to create a strong school culture by our emphasis on Character Virtues, through Crew, and through Discipline.

There are several principles on which our school culture is based. They lie at the heart of our school culture. They define the foundations behind our CODE OF CONDUCT and our BEHAVIOR GUIDELINES.

We intentionally try to weave examples of and conversations about these character virtues into our lessons. There is a particular emphasis on doing this at the start of the year. Throughout the year we try to be sure to “catch students being good” each week and recognize those students with a Polaris Award (see glossary) at Community Meeting. Additionally, as advisors, we report on the character development of each of our advisees using Crew Standards.

Responsibility: Students take responsibility for own behavior, they demonstrate responsibility for learning, and they act responsibly as member of school community.

Respect: Students show respect for self, they act respectfully toward other students and adults, and they treat personal and school property with respect.

Courage: Students act with confidence and good judgment, they are willing to try new or challenging experiences, and they hold to their own best values despite pressure from others.

Compassion: Students demonstrate kindness, they show interest in others' views and experiences, and they encourage and help others.

Perseverance: Students show effort in pursuit of excellence, they persist in the face of difficulties, and they complete their tasks.

Integrity: Students act in honest and trustworthy manner, they show commitment to developing strong character values, and they set positive example for school community.

3.2 BEHAVIOR POLICIES

GUIDING PRINCIPLES

1. WE ARE CREW, NOT PASSENGERS: All of us contribute to the strength of our community. No one is just along for the ride.
2. LEAVE NO TRACE: We take care of our environment, buildings, hallways, and classrooms by cleaning up after ourselves.
3. THE ONE RULE: Behave in a way that allows you to express yourself without causing problems for others. We recognize that some of our greatest heroes caused problems for others around them and they did so for good reason. However, this statement is useful to us in our classrooms, hallways, and generally around school as a reminder to think about the effects of your actions.

With these guiding principles in mind, we present the following policies that reflect the consensus of the Four Rivers faculty and administration. They are meant to help guide all of us in our mission of all contributing to a positive, productive and safe community.

Each section begins with an explanation of the EXPECTATIONS that students, faculty, staff and administrators follow while in school and at school events. These are presented to help make clear some of the ways the guiding principles are put into action at Four Rivers. Expectations may be used to help someone understand how behavior not specifically named in these guidelines might go against the Guiding Principle we value in our community.

RULES are listed to make clear what is and is not allowed at Four Rivers. Rule infractions can result in immediate consequences as listed in each section. Please note that repeated violation of behavior listed in any of the Expectations sections can also result in other consequences.

CONSEQUENCES listed in this document are typically presented as a spectrum of possibilities. Actual consequences for behavior counter to Four Rivers' expectations or rules will be determined by considering all available facts and relevant information.

3.3 BEHAVIOR PLANS

Students with chronic or frequent discipline issues may be put on a Behavior Plan. Behavior Plans are created to address any behavior patterns that may be present and support student growth in the areas of decision making and character development. The contents of a Behavior Plan are designed with the student's specific behavioral needs and the school community in mind.

Behavior Plans may result in loss of or restriction on certain privileges including, but not limited to Fieldwork, Intensives and participation in extracurricular activities.

Behavior Plans may be updated and amended to serve the needs of students and the school community.

3.4 TAKE A BREAK PROCEDURES

We care about our students and their learning. Sometimes emotional and behavioral issues get in the way of academics. Our intent with the procedures below is to support students' needs while helping them -- and us -- stay focused on their learning. A clear protocol should allow teachers to stay focused on their teaching while students get the support they need.

For Students: When you're upset and may need a break from class

We recognize there are times when personal issues get in the way of your learning and you may need a break from class. Here's what you can do:

Request a 5-10 minute break: Your teacher may let you get a short breather. They are responsible for you so you can only go where they allow.

Request a longer break: If the short break is not enough, teachers can give you permission to go over to the office. Ms. Wood will find an administrator who will check in to see whether you need to go home or whether you'll be able to go back into your classes.

Request a call home to leave for the day: If you can't return to class, you may have to call it a day and head home.

For Teachers:

A. Short Breaks

There are times day to day when students are distracted from their learning by personal issues. These should be handled by the classroom teacher employing the compassionate and humane regular practices of our school.

1. Students might talk to their advisor first about issues that are concerning them.
2. With permission from a teacher, students may take a brief break from class with location determined by the teacher.
3. Students must return to the class within 5-10 minutes.
4. The student's teacher is responsible for knowing where that student is and their timing.

B. Longer Breaks-- but not an emergency

Students may have bigger issues going on, and they may need a slightly longer break and the promise of adult intervention (though not immediate).

1. Teachers determine if a longer break might be required and send the student to the Farmhouse.
2. Teachers call the office to report that the student is being sent over. Ms. Wood contacts a member of the Admin team to meet with the student.
3. If a student is not able to return to class within one hour a call will be made to have them picked up and taken home for the remainder of the day.
4. Follow-up with the Wellness Advocate may be requested and scheduled.
5. Follow-up with the School Psychologist may be requested by students on an existing plan that includes seeing the School Psychologist.
6. If requested, there will be follow-up contact within a day or two.
7. There may be exceptions to these procedures for existing plans that call for longer breaks or breaks in the Farmhouse, but only when there is a specific plan written with an adult responsible for receiving and supervising that student.

C. Emergencies

Sometimes there are circumstances that require immediate response and referral to the appropriate resource, typically the School Psychologist, the School Nurse, or an administrator. Contact Ms. Wood at once.

D. For students with ongoing emotional or behavioral issues,

When there are concerns about ongoing patterns of emotional or behavioral issues:

1. Concerns, accompanied by descriptions of specific behavior, are shared in weekly division meetings. Teams determine what the next steps will be
  - a. call home from advisor
  - b. assessment regarding need for outside services -- 1 to 2 sessions with Wellness Advocate or the School Psychologist.
  - c. a counseling plan may be developed for 1 to 2 sessions (tier 1) or 6 to 8 sessions (tier 2) with the Wellness Advocate or the School Psychologist.
2. If further consultation is needed, a recommendation may be made to the family to seek outside services.
3. In the cases of special education students, a placement determination may be called for when it appears that a student may require a different setting better suited to their educational needs.

3.5 SCHOOL SAFETY

EXPECTATIONS: It is the responsibility of every member of the community to work to ensure our school is and feels safe. Physical safety and emotional safety are of equal importance at Four Rivers.

Four Rivers is committed to creating and maintaining a learning environment that feels and is safe for all members of the community. To this end, and often in accordance with Massachusetts state law, several items are prohibited from school

RULES:

1. No guns, knives, weapons or dangerous objects may be brought to school.
2. No lighters or matches may be brought to school.
3. Acts of physical aggression – fighting, pushing or shoving with anger, etc – are prohibited.
4. Threatening the safety or well-being (verbally or with physical gestures) of any member of the school community is forbidden.
5. Bullying and teasing are not tolerated.
6. Harassment of any kind based on gender, race, color, religion, national origin, ancestry, sex, age, mental illness, sexual orientation, or disability is not tolerated.

CONSEQUENCES: Violating rules around safety or playing a role that makes Four Rivers unsafe is a serious infraction and can result in suspension or expulsion. Possession of a dangerous item will result in an immediate suspension of up to 10 days and a hearing to consider long-term suspension or expulsion.

RULES:

1. Wrestling, rough-housing, play-fighting are all prohibited.
2. No images of weapons or dangerous objects may be displayed on clothing, computers, notebooks, lockers or elsewhere at school, unless specifically meeting the criteria of an assignment.

CONSEQUENCES: These range from payback to parent conference to suspension depending on severity and frequency.

NOTE ON SEARCH AND SEIZURE

School officials maintain the right to seize items in a student's possession and to search school property (lockers, desks, vehicles in parking lot, etc.) assigned to a student or the student's personal belongings under the following guidelines:

1. There is reasonable suspicion to believe the items in possession are illegal or in violation of school rules, or constitute a hazard to the health and safety of the students and others.
2. In case of an emergency, or when the student is unavailable, the principal or her/his designee has the authority to enter and/or search school property or personal possessions, and seize items covered by the policy. The student should be informed as soon as possible.
3. Four Rivers reserves the right to use other means to search school property, including, but not limited to, use of a hand held metal detector if there is reasonable suspicion that a student may be concealing a weapon and/or drug sniffing dogs to deter illicit possession of drugs within the classrooms, common areas and lockers.

4. Examples of items subject to this policy include, but are not limited to, drugs, weapons (real or facsimile), pornography, counterfeit or stolen goods, fireworks, explosives, and/or alcohol.
5. School lockers are the property of the school, the school retains control over the lockers, and periodic general inspections of lockers may be conducted by school authorities at any time for any reason, with or without notice and without a warrant.

The school reserves the right to utilize trained dogs within the limits of proper legal authority to assist with searches.

3.6 BULLYING PREVENTION POLICY

1. INTRODUCTION

- a. The Massachusetts legislature passed a law calling on all schools to try to prevent bullying, as reflected in the definitions, the policy, and the prevention plan below.
- b. It is the policy of Four Rivers Public Charter School to provide a learning and working environment for students, employees and visitors free from bullying.
- c. We all - students, teachers, administrators, and parents - share the responsibility of maintaining a safe school community. We all deserve to work in an environment in which we can feel safe and free from distraction in the pursuit of learning and teaching. This means treating each other with respect and compassion and sometimes making amends when we make mistakes. It also means that we sometimes need to have the courage to speak up when others are doing things that affect our community negatively.
- d. In a community, every individual matters and needs to feel he or she has a place and can thrive. The one guiding rule – You are free to act as you wish, as long as your behavior does not cause any problems for someone else – was created to recognize that while we all bring unique traits, abilities and talents to Four Rivers, we all share the responsibility for making our school a safe and productive place.

  - 5. enhancing students' skills for engaging in healthy relationships and respectful communications; and
  - 6. engaging students in a safe, supportive school environment that is respectful of diversity and difference.
- iii. General teaching approaches that support bullying prevention efforts. The following approaches are integral to establishing a safe and supportive school environment. These underscore the importance of our bullying intervention and prevention initiatives:
  - 1. setting clear expectations for students and establishing school and classroom routines;
  - 2. creating safe school and classroom environments for all students, including for students with disabilities, lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender students, and homeless students;
  - 3. using appropriate and positive responses and reinforcement, even when students require discipline;
  - 4. using positive behavioral supports;
  - 5. encouraging adults to develop positive relationships with students;
  - 6. modeling, teaching, and rewarding pro-social, healthy, and respectful behaviors;
  - 7. using positive approaches to behavioral health, including collaborative problem-solving conflict resolution training, teamwork, and positive behavioral supports that aid in social and emotional development;
  - 8. using the Internet safely; and

9. supporting students' interest and participation in non-academic and extracurricular activities, particularly in their areas of strength.
- iv. There are several additional ways that the school works with students to prevent bullying:
    1. CREW: Crews devote time each year to discussing the importance of the school-wide character virtues -- Respect, Responsibility, Courage, Compassion, Perseverance and Integrity -- in both personal development and in keeping our community safe and productive.
    2. WELLNESS CLASS: Additionally, the Wellness curriculum contains units on Conflict Resolution in 7th grade, Bullying in 8th grade and covers bullying in its Decision-Making units in 9th and 10th grades. Through parent workshops sponsored by the Family Council, there is further discussion of the dynamics of bullying, online safety and cyber-bullying, and how parents and guardians can reinforce the curriculum at home; and
    3. COMMUNITY BUILDING: The school also conducts school-wide events each year – Social Justice Day in November and a Film Festival highlighting one of our character virtues in February -- that allow students to work in both their Crews and cross-grade groups to address different aspects of maintaining a safe community.
    4. TEACHING APPROPRIATE BEHAVIOR THROUGH SKILLS-BUILDING: Skill-building may include:
      - a. offering individualized skill-building sessions based on the school's anti-bullying curricula;
      - b. providing relevant educational activities for individual students or groups of students, in consultation with the School Psychologist or Wellness Advocate;
      - c. implementing a range of academic and nonacademic positive behavioral supports to help students understand pro-social ways to achieve their goals;
      - d. meeting with parents and guardians to engage parental support and to reinforce the anti-bullying curricula and social skills building activities at home;
      - e. adopting behavior plans to include a focus on developing specific social skills; and
      - f. making a referral for evaluation.
  - v. There will be ongoing professional development to build skills of all staff members, including but not limited to educators, administrators, school nurses, cafeteria workers, custodians, bus drivers, athletic coaches, advisors to extracurricular activities and paraprofessionals to prevent, identify and respond to bullying. Professional development shall include:
    1. developmentally appropriate strategies to prevent bullying incidents;
    2. developmentally appropriate strategies for immediate, effective interventions to stop bullying incidents;
    3. information regarding the complex interaction and power differential that can take place between and among a perpetrator, victim and witnesses to the bullying;
    4. research findings on bullying including information about specific categories of students who have been shown to be particularly at risk for bullying in the school environment;
    5. information on the incidence and nature of cyber-bullying; and

6. internet safety issues as they relate to cyber-bullying.
- vi. There shall be age appropriate instruction on bullying prevention in each grade incorporated into the curriculum. This curriculum shall be evidence based.
- vii. Parents and guardians shall be informed about the bullying prevention curriculum of the school, specifically:
  1. how parents and guardians can reinforce the curriculum at home and support the school and school plan;
  2. dynamics of bullying; and,
  3. online safety and cyber-bullying.
- viii. The school shall provide to students and parents or guardians, in age-appropriate terms and in the languages which are most prevalent among the students, parents, or guardians, annual written notice of the student related sections of the plan.
- ix. Parent education and resources: The school will offer education programs for parents and guardians that are focused on the parental components of the anti-bullying curricula and any social competency curricula used by the school. The programs will be offered in collaboration with the Local Education Council.
- x. The school shall provide annual written notice of the plan to all staff.
- xi. All staff shall be trained and provision for faculty and staff duties shall be included in the school employee handbook.
- xii. The Plan shall be posted on the website for the school.
- xiii. The Dean of Students shall be responsible for the implementation and oversight of the plan.

5. SEXUAL HARASSMENT POLICY AND PREVENTION PLAN

a. INTRODUCTION

It is the goal of Four Rivers to promote a workplace that is free of sexual harassment. Sexual harassment of employees or students occurring in the school or in other related settings is unlawful and will not be tolerated by this organization. Further, any retaliation against an individual who has complained about sexual harassment or retaliation against individuals for cooperating with an investigation of a sexual harassment complaint is similarly unlawful and will not be tolerated. To achieve our goal of providing a workplace and school free from sexual harassment, the conduct that is described in this policy will not be tolerated and we have provided a procedure by which inappropriate conduct will be dealt with, if encountered by employees.

Because Four Rivers takes allegations of sexual harassment seriously, we will respond promptly to complaints of sexual harassment and where it is determined that such inappropriate conduct has occurred, we will act promptly to eliminate the conduct and impose such corrective action as is necessary, including disciplinary action where appropriate.

Please note that while this policy sets forth our goals of promoting a workplace that is free of sexual harassment, the policy is not designed or intended to limit our authority to discipline or take remedial action for workplace or school conduct which we deem unacceptable, regardless of whether that conduct satisfies the definition of sexual harassment.

b. DEFINITION OF SEXUAL HARASSMENT

- i. In Massachusetts, the legal definition for sexual harassment is this: "sexual harassment" means sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature when:
  - 1. submission to or rejection of such advances, requests or conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of employment or as a basis for employment decisions; or,
  - 2. such advances, requests or conduct have the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual's performance by creating an intimidating, hostile, humiliating or sexually offensive work or school environment.
- ii. Under these definitions, direct or implied requests by a supervisor or staff member for sexual favors in exchange for actual or promised benefits such as favorable reviews, salary increases, promotions, increased benefits, or continued employment constitutes sexual harassment.
- iii. The legal definition of sexual harassment is broad and in addition to the above examples, other sexually oriented conduct, whether it is intended or not, that is unwelcome and has the effect of creating a workplace environment or learning environment that is hostile, offensive, intimidating, or humiliating to male or female workers may also constitute sexual harassment.
- iv. While it is not possible to list all those additional circumstances that may constitute sexual harassment, the following are some examples of conduct which if unwelcome, may constitute sexual harassment depending upon the totality of the circumstances including the severity of the conduct and its pervasiveness:
  - 1. Unwelcome sexual advances -- whether they involve physical touching or not;
  - 2. Sexual epithets, jokes, written or oral references to sexual conduct, gossip regarding one's sex life; comment on an individual's body, comment about an individual's sexual activity, deficiencies, or prowess;
  - 3. Displaying sexually suggestive objects, pictures, cartoons;
  - 4. Unwelcome leering, whistling, brushing against the body, sexual gestures, suggestive or insulting comments;
  - 5. Inquiries into one's sexual experiences; and,
  - 6. Discussion of one's sexual activities.
- v. All employees and students should take special note that, as stated above, retaliation against an individual who has complained about sexual harassment, and retaliation against individuals for cooperating with an investigation of a sexual harassment complaint is unlawful and will not be tolerated by this organization.

Drugs and alcohol pose significant health threats to all people, even more so for teenagers. The average brain does not stop developing until the early to mid twenties. Use and abuse of drugs and alcohol can alter the development of the brain and permanently impact cognitive and emotional growth. d. SUBSTANCE ABUSE PREVENTION

The school's discipline policies make it clear that possession or use of illegal substances at school, on school grounds, or at school sponsored activities are strictly prohibited and could lead to long term suspension or expulsion from the school. Our primary concern is prevention, though there are consequences for violating these rules.

- i. CONVERSATIONS IN CREW, WITH ADVISORS, OR IN JOURNALS: It is important that substance use outside of school can be discussed with responsible adults. These conversations can remain confidential unless it raises significant concerns involving the student's health and safety. If concerns are raised, the advisor contacts the Dean of Students. The advisor may protect the source of information, but they must report the student of concern. It is important that advisors maintain appropriate boundaries – we are careful about how we discuss these topics. We might talk about our own experiences growing up but we keep certain information private. We don't encourage tell-all journals without students knowing what we must report and what we feel responsible to report.
- ii. CONFIDENTIALITY IN SAFE ZONES: While advisors can't promise full confidentiality, conversations with the School Psychologist, the Wellness Advocate, or the School Nurse -- can be kept confidential. These are safe zones for conversations about substance use. They can listen and provide resources for students and families to get further help.
- iii. WELLNESS: The Wellness program develops knowledge and skills that help young people avoid substance abuse. Young people need to "feel the strength of their bodies", which Wellness works on. Feeling strong and healthy yields positive results and good decision making. Wellness also involves adventure -- young people can seek and find adventure through healthy alternatives. Wellness also helps students develop a toolbox of decision making skills.
- iv. WELLNESS ADVOCATE: Students for whom we have wellness-related concerns (substance abuse, eating disorders, or other issues) will be brought up at the weekly student review. The Wellness Advocate may have up to 2 meetings with that student to try to determine the nature and seriousness of the issue and make a plan for next steps.
- v. OTHER INTERVENTIONS:

1. Substance Abuse Prevention Crew: A group of peers willing to talk with classmates about substance abuse issues.
  2. Child Requiring Assistance (CRA) Sometimes we will need to follow this official path to get a student the help they need.
  3. School Resource Officer: Our school may have a police officer designated to work with us and our students. Contact the Dean of Students if you think this may be needed.
- vi. DISCUSSION AND CONSIDERATION OF A SAFETY PLEDGE: Our school urges those students who drive and gather off campus to make an annual safety pledge. The reasons for this pledge are as follows:
1. The crash rate for drivers aged 16-19 years is 4 times that of older drivers.
  2. 16-19 year old drivers are responsible for one-third of all auto-involved fatalities.
  3. Most students will, at some point, be in a car with a driver who is under the influence of drugs or alcohol.
  4. Every year, the unthinkable happens. We ask student drivers and their parents to read and agree to the following statements:
    - a. I will not allow parties or gatherings in my home without proper adult supervision.
    - b. I will not serve, nor will I allow anyone under the age of 21 to consume, alcohol in my home or on my property.
    - c. I will not allow the use of illegal drugs in my home or on my property.
    - d. I will call the parent host of a party that my child is attending in order to assure that the party will be safe, free of alcohol and/or drugs, and properly supervised by an adult.
    - e. I have discussed this pledge with my child/children.
    - f. I will guarantee my child a ride home if he/she is under the influence of drugs or alcohol.

Whoever fails to report such crime shall be punished by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars.

Notification to students and student groups, teams and organizations: The school shall issue to every student group, student team or student organization a copy of this policy. Each such group, team or organization shall distribute a copy of this policy to its members. Each of its members must acknowledge that they understand and agree to comply with its provisions.

3.10 ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

EXPECTATIONS: Students are expected to demonstrate academic integrity in every aspect of their life at Four Rivers. This includes meeting the expectations of their assignments with good quality work of their own, and ensuring that the work they present to their teacher or a class is not borrowed or taken without acknowledgement from another person or source. Plagiarism of any kind is a serious offense, as described in the Plagiarism Policy.

DEFINITION OF PLAGIARISM: "To steal and pass off as one's own the ideas, words, artistic productions of another; to use without due credit the ideas, expressions, or productions of another" (Webster's New International Dictionary of the English Language)

PLAGIARISM IS CHEATING. It is academically dishonest and an ethical offense; it is inconsistent with the Four Rivers goals for character and academic rigor and is therefore unacceptable.

If a student is concerned or has questions about how to cite material for a particular assignment, the student is responsible for consulting his or her teacher.

TYPES OF PLAGIARISM INCLUDE:

1. Passing off the entire text of another person's work as one's own original work
Example: a student might download an essay off the internet or find the work of another student and turn this work in as if it were his/her essay.
2. Passing off large sections of another person's work as one's own original work
Example: a student might cut and paste whole paragraphs from another person's work, or use a translation site to create whole paragraphs that are not the work of the student.
3. Copying another student's work
Example: copying another student's homework; "sharing" homework.
4. Not properly citing data, statistics and ideas presented through paraphrasing
Example: a student might use statistics to support a claim and not cite the source of the statistics.
5. Not properly citing data, statistics and ideas presented verbatim (word for word)
Example: a student might write an essay about a scientific theory and copy the theory directly from a book or off the internet without citing the source from which s/he learned the theory.
6. Having someone other than the student make major revisions in the thoughts included in any work, especially if these revisions show a capability beyond that of the author.
Example: a student might ask a friend or parent to completely revise and make additions to his/her essay such that the student's original thoughts and capabilities are altered.

CONSEQUENCES: Specific consequences for an act of plagiarism will be determined, following the policy, at a meeting to include some or all of the following: the student, teacher involved, advisor, Principal, and parents.

A CATEGORY I OFFENSE involves the student using a few phrases or a few lines of text, images or graphics without proper citation. This also includes paraphrasing without proper documentation. Most of the student's work is still his or her own.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Parent notification</li> <li>● Possible opportunity to resubmit the assignment with proper citations and documentation</li> <li>● Teacher may adjust grade accordingly</li> <li>● Notation on disciplinary record</li> </ul>
A CATEGORY II OFFENSE is more serious, involving the student's use of multiple sentences from someone else's work, and/or the use of someone else's images, graphics or ideas without the proper attribution, and/or repeated paraphrasing without proper attribution, and/or use of translation sites without proper attribution. While some of the work is the student's own, it is clear that a substantial amount of the work presented is not the student's own. This level can also include a student presenting work that is plagiarized to the extent that the work is essentially not his or her own. Examples of this include, but are not limited to essays downloaded from the Internet, the work of another student presented as the student's own, and work done using translation sites for the entirety of an assignment.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Parent notification and/or conference</li> <li>● Student may not earn credit for the assignment</li> <li>● Possible opportunity to resubmit the assignment or complete a new assignment with proper citations and documentation in order to remain eligible for passing the relevant standards.</li> <li>● Up to one day suspension</li> <li>● Notation on disciplinary record</li> </ul> Repeated Category II offenses may result in the student failing the assignment and/or the class.

3.11 CANDY, GUM AND SNACKS

EXPECTATIONS: Four Rivers is committed to maintaining a clean campus and having a day free of distractions from learning. Snacks can be enjoyed at appropriate times during the day provided they are disposed of properly. Candy, snacks and gum will not pose any distraction from what is going on in the classroom and will not create any kind of mess for others to clean up. Periodic checks (approximately every 2 weeks) for gum and other trash will be performed by crews to assess if candy, gum and snack privileges need to be changed. LEAVE NO TRACE.

RULES:

1. No candy or snacks are allowed in the classroom unless specifically permitted by a teacher for special occasions.
2. Students may bring drinks to classes as long as they are in a container with a cap or lid and are approved by the division team. Please avoid overly caffeinated and/or sugary drinks.

3. Drinks must be stored away from laptops.
4. Candy, gum or snacks are not to be shared during class time.
5. All trash must be disposed of properly.
6. Candy, gum or snacks are not permitted during formal gatherings (i.e. Community Meeting, assemblies, and presentations).

CONSEQUENCES: Consequences for violating candy, gum and snacks rules can range from cleaning up messes, larger acts of service or loss of Candy, Gum, and Snack privileges for the extended community.

3.11 BIKES AND SKATEBOARDS

EXPECTATIONS: Four Rivers is committed to creating and maintaining a safe environment.

Members of the Four Rivers community do not ride skateboards or other wheeled devices on campus or while at school events. Bikes may be ridden to school and stored outside school buildings during the day. Bikes are not ridden on sidewalks or lawns.

RULES:

1. Use of skateboards, rollerblades, “heelies” or other wheeled devices is not allowed at any time on school grounds.

CONSEQUENCES: Misuse of bikes may result in loss of bike privileges. Skateboards, rollerblades, “heelies” or other wheeled devices may be confiscated.

3.12 USE OF ELECTRONIC DEVICES

The issues addressed by this policy bring up two of the school’s three central themes -- Technology and Community. Our school community -- trustees, teachers, probably parents, and students (though less so) -- has been divided about the use of cellphones and other electronic devices in school. Some feel they have no place during the school day, while others feel they have become a regular part of daily life and might even be useful for learning.

FOR DIVISION 1

EXPECTATIONS: Time during the school day should be focused on work and community. The use of electronic devices will not present any distraction from that responsibility. Students are fully responsible for their personal property and therefore are discouraged from bringing any electronic devices to school. Some members of the school community may have to make use of electronic devices during the day in order to do their jobs. Headphones may only be used and worn in classrooms where permission has been given. They are not to be worn in hallways or common spaces.

RULES: Cell phones, electronic games, and personal music devices must remain off and out of sight during regular school hours -- (7:50 am until dismissal in the afternoon, in some cases excluding time during the day on a van or a bus). Teachers may permit use of personal electronic devices when doing so supports student learning.

CONSEQUENCES: Electronic devices that are used inappropriately may be confiscated and left with the Dean of Students for the duration of the day to be picked up by parents.

FOR DIVISION 2 AND 3

EXPECTATIONS: We are a school that embraces the potential power of technologies in our lives while valuing the benefits of human interaction and community. Given that our school day is focused on learning, the use of electronic devices should not distract from that primary responsibility. At the same time, electronic devices can be useful for learning or as a means of connecting with communities beyond our walls. The key for students is learning appropriate use of technology -- and learning when to devices away. Our policy therefore permits a wider use of electronic devices than in the past, while asking students to follow given expectations with integrity.

RULES:

1. Students are permitted to bring their cell phone to school, to be used as a learning tool in the classroom or for personal communication not during class time.
2. Teachers may permit use of personal electronic devices in class when doing so supports student learning. Cell phones and personal music devices must remain off and out of sight during class unless the classroom teacher gives specific permission. Teachers are encouraged to incorporate the use of cell phones when appropriate into their lessons, recognizing that not all students have devices.
3. Students in the high school may use their cell phones for personal use during transition periods or at lunch, with a reminder that all students are expected to be in their classrooms on time ready to learn.
4. Headphones may only be used and worn in classrooms where permission has been given. They are not to be worn in hallways or common spaces.
5. Students are trained at the beginning of the year as to what proper cell phone etiquette is within the confines of the school.
6. Students should not use cell phones during an emergency, such as evacuations or fire drills. The school will send out official information in such situations.
7. Students may not use cell phones to take unauthorized photos or video.
8. Students may not use electronic games on computers or on mobile devices during school hours -- 7:50 am until dismissal in the afternoon -- including attendance at Homework Club.

CONSEQUENCES: Electronic devices that are used inappropriately may be confiscated and stored in the Dean of Students office for the duration of the day to be picked up by parents or returned to the student with parent OK over the phone.

NOTES: Students are fully responsible for their personal property and therefore are discouraged from bringing any electronic devices to school or leaving them unattended. Some members of the school community may have to make use of electronic devices during the day in order to do their jobs.

SECTION 4: OTHER SCHOOL PROGRAMS

4.1 COLLEGE & CAREER COUNSELING

The College Counseling Team includes Andy Stenson who works closely with Division II and III students in making and following through on their post-Four Rivers plans, including assembling and tracking their applications to college or other post-secondary institutions. Parents or students in younger grades may also address questions of college counseling to him. Leslie Taylor, Registrar, handles transcripts, testing and other student records. They both are located in the Farmhouse and can be reached through the school main number as well as via email at: astenson@fourriverscharter.org and ltaylor@fourriverscharter.org.

News on informational presentations such as Applying to College or Applying for Financial Aid, SAT and ACT deadlines, and area College Fairs, can be found on the School website, and in the monthly newsletter Currents.

4.2 SPORTS PROGRAM

An elective after school Sports Program is offered in the Fall and Spring seasons, with Intramural Ultimate two days a week in the winter. A fee is charged to help reduce the cost of equipment and staffing. The fall sport is soccer, and the program meets five afternoons per week for practices and games. The winter sport is basketball, with the number of afternoons to be determined. We also offer intramural ultimate through the winter. The spring sport is Ultimate Frisbee. Further details of the programs will be provided to students and parents by Amanda McNamara, the Athletic Director. Please note that students participating in games must be in good academic standing, and that a student who has been absent from school is not allowed to participate in sports or other after school activities that day. (A student is considered absent if he/she attended school for less than ½ the day.) Students must also provide evidence of a current (within the last 12 months) physical examination to the school nurse.

4.3 LOCAL EDUCATION COUNCIL (FORMERLY FAMILY COUNCIL)

The school invites all interested parents and guardians to join the Family Council, which meets monthly and offers ways for parents to be informed about and support the purposes, program and community of Four Rivers. Family Council activities include planning and overseeing non-academic school functions, from community pot-lucks to service projects on campus and organizing after-school activities, as well as offering assistance to the faculty for fieldwork, class projects, and other volunteer needs. The Family Council also sponsors programs to foster parent education and address ways to strengthen parent/child communication and understanding. At the monthly meetings the school Principal or other staff members report on the school's program and growth, and discuss questions of interest to the group. Meetings are held monthly -- check Currents, the monthly school newsletter, for the schedule. The email address for the Family Council is FamilyCouncil@fourriverscharter.org

4.4 PARENT VOLUNTEERS AND CORI CHECKS

Parent or guardian volunteers who may be with students in an unsupervised setting (such as driving students on fieldwork or working with a small group in a separate space at school) are now required to have passed a CORI (Criminal Offender Record Information) check before such activities can be permitted. Please see Amy Wales (Director of Operations) for guidance in requesting a CORI check.

4.5 SCHOOL NURSE

The School Nurse is present every day for four hours, from 10:30-2:30 pm, in the Health Office in the Farmhouse. She oversees school health records and medical recommendations, and cares for students who come to her during her hours. During other times, students who are not feeling well should report to the School Secretary, who will contact the student's parents if the condition merits their attention. Any student who has medication (including over-the-counter medications like Tylenol) must keep the medication in the Health Office along with the required permission forms signed by parents and/or medication order forms signed by their doctor. All medications are to be administered in the Health Office under the supervision of the School Nurse.

4.6 SCHOOL PSYCHOLOGIST

The School Psychologist, Dr. William Fogel, is an important resource to support the social and emotional growth of our students. He is at the school Monday through Thursday, and he is available to any student or parent who requests time with him. To make an appointment, simply speak with him, call his voice mail (ext 210) or leave a message in the School Office.

4.7 SPECIAL ED PARENT ADVISORY COUNCIL

The Special Education Parents Advisory Council (PAC) will meet at least three times each year to support parents and discuss issues of children with special education needs. The meetings are announced in the school newsletter, Currents, and are open to all.

4.8 BUILDINGS AND GROUNDS

Four Rivers is fortunate in its school buildings and grounds, and we want to care for them with respect and gratitude. The school has a long-term, renewable lease with Four Rivers Educational Foundation, for the Farmhouse, the 7th and 8th grade classroom building called the Barn, and the High School building and the Blue Barn. The seven acre campus includes a full-sized soccer field west of the High School.

The Farmhouse, the front part of which was built around 1777, houses the Business Office, the Gardner Room (serving as a school library and meeting room), and a conference room downstairs. Students are not permitted upstairs in the Farmhouse unless accompanied by an adult. The Farmhouse Ell provides the main entrance to the school, with the School Office and the Principal's Office on either side of the entrance. At the north end of the Ell is our Project Room.

Students are not allowed to leave the school's grounds during school hours unless accompanied by an adult or with specific parent permission.

We ask that parents and visitors follow the posted directions for pick-up and parking, and we urge extra caution and patience during the busy pickup time in the afternoon.

SECTION 5: OTHER POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

5.1 ATTENDANCE POLICY

(Updated AUGUST 2018)

Good attendance is one component of becoming an effective learner. It also has effects on the classroom community and frequent group work in our classes. The revised policy below is intended to increase good attendance at Four Rivers. The biggest change is enforcement of loss of credit in a class when a student misses more than 9 days (10%) of that class in a semester.

EXCUSED ABSENCES

There are reasons why a student might miss school (listed below). We do count and track these absences and students are expected to make up the missed work. However, there are no further consequences unless a student has more than 9 absences in a semester, as described below. Unexcused absences include personal illness, without a doctor's note and family vacations during school days.

1. Medical appointments, with note from that office, which cannot be made outside of school hours. (Please do make every effort to prevent these from conflicting with school; and a note from the doctor's office is required);
2. College or school visits with advance notice;
3. Severe weather conditions or impassable roads;
4. Road test appointments (very hard to reschedule);
5. Court obligations;
6. Religious holidays as prescribed by the State Department of Education;
7. School suspensions mandated by the administration;
8. Death in the family
9. Extended or frequent absences that are the result of a medical or mental health condition, in which case the school develops a 504 Plan and/or Individualized Education Program (IEP) and does not penalize the student for the absences related to that condition. Such a plan will include academic adjustments and/or related aids and services to ensure the provision of a free, appropriate, public education (FAPE).
10. If your child has a medical or mental health condition that is interfering with regular school attendance, please submit documentation from a health care provider so that we can best support your child's needs. If you have questions or need assistance with obtaining documentation, please contact Kate Conant, Director of Academic Support. Please refer to the Special Education Evaluation and Placement Procedures if you suspect your child may have a disability and you would like to consider a school based evaluation.

CONSEQUENCES FOR EXCESSIVE ABSENCES

LOSS OF CREDIT: Students in grades 9-12 who miss more than 10% of a class (9 days for core classes) in a semester will not receive full credit for that course. In the high school,

- a. Students who miss 10-19 days of a class will lose 1 credit.
- b. Students who miss 20-29 days of a class will lose 2 credits.
- c. Students who miss 30 or more days of a class will lose all 3 credits.

LOSS OF PRIVILEGES: Students who miss more than 10% of a class--

- a. Not eligible to earn honors or HOWL of Fame.
- b. Not eligible for Senior Privilege; lost for the remainder of that semester.
- c. Not eligible to sign up for regular intensives. Instead will be assigned to a HOWLS Intensive that will focus on effective habits of learning and work and also be combined with service.

ATTENDANCE WAIVER PROCEDURE

For high school students who are absent more than 10% of a class in a semester, the student may submit an attendance policy waiver as soon as the loss of credit has been reached. The student must complete an Attendance Policy Waiver Form. The student must provide documentation substantiating the absences, and evidence that all work missed due to absences had been made up. Completed waivers and documentation should be turned into the Main Office. The Principal makes a determination and notifies the student and the Registrar the outcome of the waiver request.

CONSEQUENCES: If a student is absent for more than 10% of a class each semester, credit may not be awarded for that class. Tardiness to class also means a student is missing important time and a record will be kept of minutes missed in each class due to tardiness. Please note that Crew is a class that meets at the start of each day. Credit for Crew can be earned back through service work done during Saturday Payback time. Credit for academic classes may be made up through a variety of ways described in ACADEMIC POLICIES.

TARDINESS

Students are expected to arrive on time for school and for their classes.

1. A student is considered tardy to school when he or she arrives late to morning Crew, which begins at 8:00 am – Arrival at 8:00 is late; 7:59 is on time.
2. Please note that Crew is a class that meets at the start of each day. Late arrivals to school are recorded and the total number of minutes late is tallied. If a pattern of tardiness emerges during the school year, students and families will be asked to participate in a conference with the Dean of Students and the student's Crew leader to address the issue. If the problem persists, minutes may have to be made up through payback.
3. Students who are late due to inclement weather, unforeseen road conditions or medical appointments that are documented by a doctor's office will be counted as tardy but the minutes will not be.
4. Tardiness to class also means a student is missing important time and a record will be kept of minutes missed in each class due to tardiness, which have to be made up through payback and/or credit recovery work.

EARLY DISMISSAL

Parents should make every attempt to schedule appointments outside the school day.

1. Parents must sign students out and back in at the office. Please do not call or text your students on their cell phones to let them know you are here as this is a violation of our cell phone policy.
2. Students leaving early for appointments are dismissed from class to meet you in the office once you arrive.

ABSENCE NOTIFICATION TO PARENTS

1. If a student is not in his or her classroom and the school has not been notified, parents will receive a call at home or work by 9:00 each day.
2. We send occasional reminders to all families to check FOCUS for your student's attendance and tardy information.
3. We send notice for students who have accumulated tardies warranting payback.
4. We send notice for students whose absences are approaching 9 in a semester or whose academic performance is in danger from absences.

ATTENDANCE OUTSIDE OF SCHOOL HOURS

In an Expeditionary Learning school, there are times when students need to be present outside of regular school hours. Public presentations, fieldwork, and other important learning experiences sometimes happen in the evening or on weekends. The school's policy is that attendance at such events is mandatory, as long as there is enough notice and as long as it happens only a few times a year. Many students are active in athletics, clubs and organizations, etc. and conflicts do arise with athletic events, performances, family obligations and so on. However, these are NOT acceptable reasons to be absent from mandatory evening or weekend programs. Only serious or extreme circumstances may release a student from this obligation.

MASSACHUSETTS GENERAL LAWS PERTAINING TO SCHOOL ATTENDANCE

School Attendance

Chapter 76, section 1 of the Massachusetts General Laws states that all children between the ages of six and sixteen must attend school. A school may excuse up to seven day sessions or fourteen half day sessions in any period of six months. In addition to this law, each school may have its own attendance policy with which parents and guardians should be familiar.

What is a CRA?

A “CRA” (Child iRequiring Assistance) petition may be filed in court by a school if a child between the ages of six and sixteen persistently and willfully fails to attend school or persistently violates lawful and reasonable regulations of her or his school. The Court’s authority pursuant to a CRA petition includes the power to place the child in the custody of the state agency known as the Department of Children and Families (DCF).

What is a 51A?

A “51A” is a report of suspected child abuse or neglect that is filed with the state Department of Social Services. Under Chapter 119, section 51A of the Massachusetts General Laws, a report can be filed on behalf of a child under the age of eighteen for educational neglect if a child is not attending school on a regular basis.

Parental Responsibility

Parents or guardians are legally responsible for ensuring that a child under their control attends school daily. It is a crime for a responsible parent or guardian not to cause such a child to attend school. If a child fails to attend school for seven day sessions or fourteen half day sessions within any six month period, the school may file a criminal complaint in court against the responsible parent or guardian. It is a crime to induce or attempt to induce a minor to miss school, or harbor a minor who should be in school.

5.2 COMMUNICATIONS

We want everyone -- parents, students, and staff -- to know what’s going on at Four Rivers. Here are the different ways we communicate with you.

COMMUNICATING ABOUT ACADEMICS

Students and parents should also receive information about academic difficulties before a situation becomes urgent or too late to revise in order to pass a standard. How can students and parents know how things are going?

1. In Class: Teachers give frequent, direct and clear feedback to students about where there’s trouble and what to try to work on.
2. In Planners: Students write down their assignments. Parents can check planners as they wish. When tighter accountability is warranted, parents might sign each assignment in the planner, and teachers might highlight assignments not completed.
3. By email or Phone Calls: Teachers or advisors try to provide friendly correspondence when there is an inkling of an issue. When students of concern are brought up at weekly Monday meetings, advisors make contact.
4. In the Handbook: You can find information about how we grade, grading policies, policies related to promotion, and options for earning credits in the high school. If any of the information there does not make sense, all academic issues can be directed to the Principal for clarification.

BROADCASTS (EMAIL/PHONE CALLS)

When we need to get in touch with all of you or smaller subgroups, we'll send you an email message. Please let us know if you don't have a computer or internet access and would prefer to receive all communication from us by phone and mail.

CALENDAR ON THE WEBSITE

We want you to be able to find out what's going on when you want. There is one calendar on the homepage of our website that lists all school events and sports schedules.

OTHER LINKS ON THE WEBSITE

WHEN YOU NEED TO COMMUNICATE WITH YOUR STUDENT

We understand that sometimes emergencies happen--flat tires, cars won't start, health issues, a student needs to take the bus home--and in those cases we will make every effort to get the essential information to your child. Contact Carolyn Wood in the School office in these situations.

However, in non-emergency situations we rely on students and families to be responsible for plans and belongings.

- In general we do not provide message or delivery service of forgotten belongings to students during the school day. This includes lunches, car keys, planners, homework, water bottles, and clothing and footwear for after school programs.
- Please remind your child in the morning that they should check at the School office if they forget something, including a lunch--especially if they have contacted you to deliver the items.
- If you have changed your carpool arrangements, please make sure the adult responsible for pick-up knows it is their responsibility to connect with your child.
- Our school's policy on cell phone use during the school day--just for students in the high school! -- allows you and your child to communicate directly. Please don't expect an immediate response--they're focused on learning and the classroom.

QUESTIONS AND CONCERNS

When you have concerns about your child's well being or when you are looking for information or advice, we want to help you in any way that we can. We want to get you to the right person who can help with the issues at hand.

1. Contact your student's Advisor directly if you already have that relationship established.
2. If you want to reach an administrator or if you don't know who you're looking for, contact the School Secretary, Carolyn Wood. The School Secretary needs to know enough about your issue so she can send you to the right person.

3. Here are some examples:
  - a. If you are concerned about an emergency, contact Ms. Wood in the front office; she will find the right person to return your call within the hour.
  - b. If you are concerned about a non-urgent matter, also contact Ms. Wood in the front office; she will find the right person to return your call within a day or two.

  - g. If you are interested in finding outside counseling or other services, contact the School Psychologist, Bill Fogel

WHAT ARE REASONABLE EXPECTATIONS REGARDING COMMUNICATION?

If you call or write us, we aim to reply within 24 hours (excluding weekends and holidays). That doesn't mean that we will have all the answers at that point, but we try to acknowledge we've received your message.

WHAT ARE REASONABLE EXPECTATIONS REGARDING COMMUNICATION?

If you call or write us, we aim to reply within 24 hours (excluding weekends and holidays). That doesn't mean that we will have all the answers at that point, but we try to acknowledge we've received your message.

5.4 COMPLAINT PROCEDURE

A. COMPLAINT PROCEDURE REGARDING GENERAL CONCERNS

(Excluding harassment, sexual harassment, bullying, substance use, or violations of state or federal laws – complaint procedures for these are included in those policies or the section below.)

Step 1: Problem solving at the source

We encourage individuals who have complaints to respectfully talk and problem solve with the individual(s) involved. At the classroom level, for example, most complaints should initially be addressed to the teacher or staff member involved.

Step 2: Problem solving with the Principal/Head of School

The complaining party may choose to problem solve with the Principal/Head of School for the following reasons:

1. the nature of the complaint makes it difficult to go directly to the source
2. problem solving at the source, as described in Step 1, did not produce resolution
3. the Principal/Head of School is the subject of the complaint

The complaining party must first put in writing: 1) a clear and concise description of the specific concerns and 2) possible remedies or solutions for each concern. This written statement should be given to the Principal, who will investigate to whatever extent necessary. The Principal/Head of School and complaining party then make reasonable efforts to work together towards resolution. This mutually respectful dialogue is typically the most effective way for complaining parties to help their student or to promote change in school actions.

Step 3: Board Involvement

The Board Chair will only consider a complaint after the Principal/Head of School and complaining party have made demonstrable and reasonable efforts to work together. The Board Chair's involvement with teachers or staff is limited to supervision of the Principal/Head of School's guidance, supervision and leadership of teachers and staff.

Should problem-solving with the Principal/Head of School fail to bring a satisfactory resolution within two weeks of presenting the written concern to the Principal/Head of School, a written statement by the complaining party may be submitted to the Chair of the Four Rivers Board of Trustees. Delivery must be in paper format, addressed to the Chair in care of Four Rivers Charter Public School.

This written complaint should state specific concerns clearly and concisely. The Board Chair will review the issues with the Principal/Head of School, and investigate to whatever extent necessary. The Board Chair may choose to convene an advisory group of other trustees for considering the complaint. The Board Chair will respond to complaints about school policies, procedures and programs to the complaining party no later than 30 days from the receipt of the complaint. The results of any investigation specific to an individual will not be disclosed to the complaining party, due to laws protecting privacy.

Note 1: Supervision of teachers and staff, as well as the hiring and firing of teachers and staff is the responsibility of the Principal/Head of School. The Board Chair's involvement with teachers and staff is limited to supervision of the Principal's guidance, supervision and leadership of teachers and staff.

Note 2: Public Comment occurs typically at the end of each Board Meeting each month. Following the statements made by an individual, the Board will not engage in discussion or otherwise respond to comments made. Members of the public may make statements to the Board during Public Comment provided they make no complaints, charges or personal comments against any particular individuals. Protecting the privacy of individuals is required by law.

B. COMPLAINT PROCEDURE REGARDING STATE/FEDERAL LAWS

- A parent, guardian or other individuals or groups who believe that the school has violated or is violating any provision of M.G.L. c 71, sec. 89 or 603 CMR 1.00 may file a complaint with the Four Rivers Charter School Board of Trustees.
- The Board of Trustees shall respond no later than 30 days from the receipt of the complaint in writing to the complaining party.
- The Board shall, pursuant to a complaint received under 603 CMR 1.10, or on its own initiative, conduct reviews to ensure compliance; and the school and the specific individuals involved shall cooperate to the fullest extent with such review.
- Any complaining party who believes the complaint has not been adequately addressed by the Board of Trustees may submit the complaint in writing to the Commissioner of Education, who shall investigate such complaint and make a written response.
- In the event the school is found in non-compliance with M.G.L. c. 71 sec. 89 or CMR 1.00, as a result of a complaint or upon investigation, the Commissioner or Board of Education may take such action as it deems appropriate, including but not limited to suspension or revocation of the school's charter under 603 CMR 1.12, or referral of the matter to the District Attorney or the Office of the Attorney General for appropriate legal action.
- A parent, guardian or other individuals or groups who believe that the school has violated or is violating any state or federal law or regulation regarding special education may file a complaint directly with the Department of Elementary and Secondary Education.

If you have any questions, complaints or need any information regarding any of the above named Titles, please contact Kate Conant, Director of Academic Support concerning ADA or 504, and the Principal for all other matters.

5.5 NO (FEW) SURPRISES PLEDGE

Communication is never perfect, but we try to improve what we can. Therefore, our staff makes the following pledge to you, our families:

STAFF PLEDGE: IF WE KNOW SOMETHING IMPORTANT ABOUT YOUR STUDENT OR SOMETHING IMPORTANT TO YOUR ROLE AS A PARENT IN OUR SCHOOL, WE WILL DO OUR BEST TO GIVE YOU TIMELY, CLEAR INFORMATION.

Because communication is a two-way street, we ask you to make a similar pledge:

PARENT/STUDENT PLEDGE: WE WILL DO OUR BEST TO READ COMMUNICATIONS FROM THE SCHOOL -- IN THE FLASH, THE CURRENTS, OR THE HANDBOOK -- SO WE KNOW WHAT'S GOING ON AND HOW THINGS WORK AT THE SCHOOL.

5.6 TOWARDS INDEPENDENCE

We strive to educate graduates ready for the world, which means in part that we want them to become independent, responsible young adults. While they are getting there, they make mistakes. At each grade level, we take the following steps to help students be accountable for their work:

1. In 7th grade: Students write assignments in their planners. Assignments not completed get recorded in a log, and the student calls a parent to let them know something wasn't done. Notes on missing work get shared at a weekly student review. HOWLS (Habits of Work and Learning) are taught and assessed.
2. In 8th grade: Students write assignments in their planners. Assignments not completed get recorded on the board. Notes on missing work get shared at a weekly student review. HOWLS are taught and assessed.
3. In 9th/10th grade: Students write assignments in their planners. Notes on missing work get shared at a weekly student review. There is weekly discussion on students of concern -- advisors call home. HOWLS are taught and assessed.
4. In 11th/12th grade: Students write assignments in their planners. Notes on missing work get shared at a weekly student review. There is weekly discussion on students of concern -- advisors talk directly to the student the first week and then call home the next week if things haven't turned around.. HOWLS are taught and assessed -- the Div 3 HOWL counts as an academic standard that needs to be passed in order to earn full credit.

5.7 BEFORE AND AFTER SCHOOL PROCEDURES

BEFORE SCHOOL:

1. The school building opens for students at 7:30 a.m.
2. Students may only arrive at school earlier than 7:30 if they have made previous arrangements with Ms. Wood in the front office.
3. All students wait in the Common Room until 7:50 when they are allowed to head to class, with the following exceptions
4. Seniors may gather in room 103.
5. No students are allowed upstairs on the second floor of the high school or in the middle school before 7:50.

AFTER SCHOOL:

1. Students are released at 3:05 (1:30 on Wednesdays). If you have an emergency and cannot pick up your student or carpool, please call Ms. Wood in the main office to make arrangements for supervision of your child. Pick-up for students after 3:15 (1:45 on Wednesdays) is from the U in front of the farmhouse.

2. All students not picked up by 3:15 and 1:45 on Wednesdays are expected to be in a supervised after school program:
  - a. Extra help from a teacher: All core teachers offer an hour of extra help one afternoon a week. Students report to that room by 3:15 and remain there until 4:15. Students who are not picked up at 4:15 are expected to go to Homework Club -- families will be charged.
  - b. Sports: practices from 3:15 to 5:15, 1:45 to 3:15 on Wednesdays
  - c. After School Clubs: 3:15 to 5:15 on designated days.
  - d. Homework Club: The school offers a supervised fee-based after school care program. Homework Club will operate in the library of the Farmhouse on Mondays, Tuesdays, and Thursdays from 3:15 to 5:15.
    - i. The fee is $5/hour, $2/hour for families that qualify for reduced lunch, and $1/hour for families that qualify for free lunch.
    - ii. Students picked up later than 5:15 might not be allowed to continue participating.
  - e. On Wednesdays and Fridays, there is no Homework Club or extra help, so families need to make sure they have plans for pick up by 1:45 on Wednesdays and 3:15 on Fridays. Provided there are seats available, students may take the bus to downtown Greenfield to be picked up by parents/guardians.

5.8 AFTER SCHOOL DISCIPLINE PROCEDURES

Behavior Expectations:

The expectations for behavior and behavior policies are the same after school as they are during the day. Teachers and coaches running our after school activities should be able to do their job without any interruption or interference. Students taking part in after school activities should be able to participate without distractions or disruptions. Attending after school activities is a privilege. Problems with behavior and discipline may result in loss of this privilege.

Discipline Procedures:

The procedures for discipline after school are similar to those used during the school day. Attendance in the after school program is a privilege so our procedures vary some to reflect that difference from the school day.

Whenever possible, students should be given a warning and opportunity to redirect if their behavior is disruptive or inappropriate. Students may be asked to complete blue slips for behavior infractions.

If there is no change in behavior, or if the infraction is serious enough, students may be suspended from after school activities for any period of time.

It is a privilege to be able to participate in after school programs at Four Rivers. Students who misbehave during any after school activities run the risk of losing that privilege. Consequences for behavior infractions may include, but is not limited to the following:

1. First Incident: Warning and/or short term (1-2 day) suspension from the activity.
2. Second Incident: Up to two weeks suspension from after school activities
3. Third Incident: Long Term Suspension from after school activities that may last the remainder of the season, term or year.

5.8 HOMEWORK POLICY

MODERATION AND BALANCE

Four Rivers tries to set homework expectations that are moderate and that allow students to find healthy balance in their lives. Learning and growth require just the right amount of challenge. Too little, students coast. Too much, students stress and shut down. Everyone needs down time or time to pursue personal interests apart from school.

Four Rivers intends the following purposes for our assignment of homework:

1. Homework supports classroom learning.
2. Homework allows students to practice/review, prepare, extend, or integrate.
  - a. Practice homework reinforces learning and helps the student master specific skills.
  - b. Preparation homework introduces material that will be presented in future lessons but does not require mastery of the information.
  - c. Extension homework asks students to apply skills they already have to new situations.
  - d. Integration homework requires the student to apply many different skills to a single task.
3. Homework helps students develop independence and good work habits.

COMMON EXPECTATIONS

When teachers assign homework, Families should expect that homework may take up to two hours -- our rule of thumb is to limit the amount of assigned work to about 10 minutes per grade level, so 70 minutes for 7th grade, 80 minutes for 8th, and so on. Autonomy for the timing of assignments changes as students progress through Four Rivers, with Div 1 projects typically requiring shorter homework assignments on a daily basis. Div 3 projects tend to be longer-term and thus may require work outside of class over a period of days, depending on student time management and use of in-school work periods

Families should help set aside this time and they should work with their students to plan ahead if some days in the week are busier than others after school. Because we intend that homework at Four Rivers is a meaningful extension of classroom learning, it is important individually and often for the progress of the class that students complete their homework.

No assigned homework on weekends. Changed from past policy, teachers don't assign new work on Friday that is due on Monday. Some students may use the weekend to catch up or get ahead, but the hope is students might spend time engaged by other pursuits.

COMMON PRACTICES

1. Teachers post homework on the whiteboard in class.
2. Students copy homework into planners provided at the beginning of each school year.
3. Assignments and handouts may be available at the end of the school day for students who are absent. Assignments can be picked up in the school office with sufficient notice.
4. Homework is collected or checked at the beginning of each class.
5. If a student fails to bring in homework or has a chronic pattern of missed work, teachers may call home to discuss the issue of missing work with parents. The student may also be required to attend extra help. If a student continues not to do homework, that student's advisor will likely set up a conference with the student and his or her parents and develop a clear plan for improvement.
6. Teachers also post assignments to the CLASS WEB PAGES. Teachers update class websites weekly or daily where homework assignments and other class information are posted.

PLANNERS

Success for a student requires preparation and organization. Four Rivers provides students with an assignment planner at the start of each school year. Each student should bring the necessary tools to each class daily, including his or her planner. The student's planner is used daily in each class to record assignments and work due. It should be brought home each night, and we encourage parents to review it as needed with their students.

5.9 HOMEWORK CLUB EXPECTATIONS

Homework Club is intended as a time for students to get work done. Behavior during this time must be respectful for both fellow students attending and teachers running it. All effort should be made to have this be a productive work environment.

Computers may be used for work purposes during Homework Club with permission of the teacher in charge. As the RESPONSIBLE USE OF TECHNOLOGY POLICIES make clear, students may not play games during this time. Laptops must be used on a desk or table (not on laps or while sitting on the floor). Computer screens should be visible to the teacher in charge. Laptops must be properly returned to the computer cart at the end of the work session.

5.10 AFTER SCHOOL DISCIPLINE PROCEDURES

Behavior Expectations:

The expectations for behavior and behavior policies are the same after school as they are during the day. Teachers and coaches running our after school activities should be able to do their job without any interruption or interference. Students taking part in after school activities should be able to participate without distractions or disruptions. Attending after school activities is a privilege. Problems with behavior and discipline may result in loss of this privilege.

5. Second Incident: Up to two weeks suspension from after school activities
6. Third Incident: Long Term Suspension from after school activities that may last the remainder of the season, term or year.

5.13 CONDOM DISTRIBUTION POLICY

As part of its Wellness Program, Four Rivers teaches a comprehensive sex education program to all of its students in grades 7-10. The program delivers factually accurate, age-appropriate information on a range of topics pertaining to sexual health, sexuality, accessing health care, and healthy relationships. The program is grounded in the principles of social and emotional learning, which focuses on the areas of self-awareness, self-management, awareness of others, relationship skills and responsible decision making. By building in time for practice and assessment of these skills, students are given the foundation to make responsible decisions about sex and sexuality, as well as to build and maintain healthy relationships in all aspects of their lives.

Massachusetts Comprehensive Health Curriculum Framework of 1999 provides the following standards which support the implementation of such a program: Students will acquire the knowledge and skills necessary to make effective personal decisions that promote their emotional, sexual, and reproductive health.

Students will learn the signs, causes, and treatment of chronic and communicable diseases, and will gain skills related to health promotion, disease prevention, and health maintenance.

The Policy:

As part of the school's overall efforts to promote reproductive health and in order to reduce risks of unprotected sexual activity, the Four Rivers Charter School makes condoms available to students through the health services, wellness, and counseling offices. The school also provides appropriate counseling.

1. This policy will be implemented upon the approval of the Board of Trustees.
2. The school's comprehensive wellness program aims to increase student awareness of Sexually Transmitted Infections and HIV/AIDS.
3. The school's comprehensive wellness program develops and ensures understanding of the concepts of abstinence, safer sex practices, and knowledge of community health resources.
4. The wellness and health staff are trained to provide counseling prior to distribution of condoms.
5. The school distributes parental opt-out forms which would maintain parental control; condoms would not be available to students whose parents choose to opt them out of the program. This form is presented to families every year with registration materials. The school maintains a process that allows those authorized to distribute condoms to know who has opted out.
6. Information be disseminated to students who use this program in the following areas:
  7. abstinence related behaviors
  8. prevention of Sexually Transmitted Infections
  9. proper use of condoms and rates of effectiveness
  10. sexual health resources within the community
11. Develop a record keeping system which identifies use statistics of the program. No records of individual student involvement in the program will be maintained.

5.14 DRIVING AND PARKING POLICIES

STUDENT DRIVERS

Driving to Four Rivers is a privilege, holding with it the responsibility of following the school's driving regulations. An application for student driving privileges may be obtained from Ms. Taylor, Registrar (also available on our web site under "For Students").

The application form must be completed, signed and submitted to the school along with a photocopy of the student's driver's license and a copy of a current insurance policy cover page (or binder) showing the student as a named insured driver and the limits of coverage, and a copy of same any time it is changed. Students may drive to school only after the application has been signed (and approved) by Ms. Taylor, Registrar. Parking permits may be restricted in number due limited space. Behavior in cars on campus should at all times comply with student behavior guidelines as outlined in previous pages of this Handbook.

ADULT VOLUNTEER DRIVERS

From time to time our teachers may be doing an activity or field work that requires volunteer adult drivers. Any parent wishing to volunteer should complete the Adult Volunteer Driver form and meet with Harlan Smith, Director of Operations.

The application form must be completed, signed and submitted to the school along with a photocopy of the applicant's drivers license and a copy of a current insurance policy cover page (or binder) showing the student as a named insured driver and the limits of coverage, and a copy of same any time it is changed. We ask that these forms be completed well in advance of any school trip for which you are driving.

Four Rivers Charter Public School cannot assume any responsibility for damage done to a vehicle while on school grounds. All drivers are subject to the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts Department of Motor Vehicles. Violators of state law will be reported to the local authorities. The purpose of the school's permission forms and policies is to keep all of our students safe.

5.9 EQUAL ACCESS AND FREEDOM FROM BIAS

It is important that all students and families feel welcome and included in all aspects of Four Rivers. The following procedures are aimed at ensuring equal access and freedom from bias in all school programs.

1. Counseling and counseling materials are free from bias and stereotyping:
  - a. The Director of Academic Support and School Psychologist meet annually to discuss concerns related to bias and stereotyping in counseling and counseling materials.
  - b. The Guidance Counselor encourages students to consider classes and opportunities on the basis of their interests, abilities and skills.
  - c. School personnel examine testing materials to screen for bias and counteract any bias when administering and interpreting testing results.
  - d. School personnel make sure communications with limited English proficient (LEP) students is effective.
  - e. School personnel support educational and occupational pursuits considered nontraditional for the student's gender.
2. Scholarships, prizes and awards sponsored or administered by the school are free of restrictions:
  - a. The Guidance Counselor and division team leaders check for restrictions or bias when considering any awards.
3. Instructional locations for different groups are comparable:

- a. The Director of Finance and Operations ensures all students, staff, and families have equal access to all facilities.
  - b. At least one facility at each level is accessible to all individuals with disabilities for educational and vocational programs and services.
4. The school's curriculum is free from bias and stereotyping:
- a. Teachers review all educational materials for simplistic and demeaning generalizations on the basis of race, color, sex, gender identity, religion, national origin and sexual orientation as part of the Beginning of the Year Checklist.
  - b. Teachers review activities, discussions and/or supplementary materials that are used to provide balance and context for any stereotypes depicted in such materials.
  - c. The Principal reviews all curriculum maps on an annual basis for possible bias or stereotyping.
  - d. The Student and Family Handbook includes a message asking anyone who perceives bias or stereotyping in curriculum or materials to report such concerns to the Principal.
5. Self Evaluation:
- a. Each year, the Principal reviews of all aspects of its program to ensure that all students, regardless of race, color, sex, gender identity, religion, national origin, limited English proficiency, sexual orientation, disability, or housing status, have equal access to all programs, including athletics and other extracurricular activities.
  - b. No changes have been warranted by this review last year.
6. The school protects the confidentiality of any personally identifiable information that it collects, uses or maintains:
- a. The Privacy Policy is published in the Student and Family Handbook.
  - b. The Registrar monitors adherence to the Privacy Policy.

5.10 FAMILY COMMITMENT

All members of the Four Rivers Charter Public School community—teachers, students, parents, staff and trustees—have responsibilities to promote student learning and the growth of our school. This is a brief description of the essential commitments we ask from parents and guardians at the time of their application, and every parent now enrolled has signed this.

BE INVOLVED IN YOUR CHILD'S SCHOOL LIFE

Attend important meetings with your child and his or her advisor, including conferences, exhibitions, and portfolio presentations.

Go over your child's progress reports and other school communications together.

Review with your child the school's Family Handbook when it is distributed this summer.

Contact your child's advisor or the school Principal about issues that may affect your child's learning and positive participation in the school.

HELP YOUR CHILD DEVELOP GOOD HOMEWORK HABITS AND MAKE SCHOOL A TOP PRIORITY

Check that your child's assignments are clear and homework is completed each night.

Limit TV, video, telephone and on-line time which interfere with homework, and encourage your child to read at least one-half hour each night.

Help your child to live a healthy lifestyle, with regular bedtimes and good nutrition.

Ensure that your child arrives on time each day, and inform the school promptly of absences. If your child is required to stay after to work with a teacher to make up late or incomplete work, arrange alternative transportation to support this consequence.

SUPPORT FOUR RIVERS CHARTER PUBLIC SCHOOL CHARACTER VALUES AND THE CODE OF CONDUCT

Show your child that you understand and support the school's emphasis on character development and the Expeditionary Learning Design Principles.

Promote and reinforce the school's Code of Conduct.

Work closely with faculty to support appropriate consequences for misconduct.

Help promote a school community free of any form of substance abuse and work closely with the school when concerns may arise.

PARTICIPATE IN FAMILY COUNCIL ACTIVITIES AND VOLUNTEER IN SUPPORT OF THE SCHOOL

Take part in the school's Family Council and the programs or projects it develops.

Offer to volunteer your skills and time, as needed by the school and workable for you.

Support the work we all need to do to build a strong school community, in the Expeditionary Learning spirit of "We are crew, not passengers!"

5.11 FAMILY RESPONSIBILITIES

CONTACTING OR TELEPHONING YOUR CHILD AT SCHOOL

The School strives to keep the school day free of interruptions and distractions, therefore we request parents not contact their student at school unless for an urgent matter, and then only make contact by calling the school office. Students are instructed to keep electronic devices, including cell phones or any texting devices turned off and stowed out of sight until the school day is over. We hope that parents will respect this rule and not telephone or text their student during the school day, and remind them to keep cell phones turned off and stowed out of sight. Students caught using their phones during the day have them confiscated and turned in to the front office; parents have to come in to retrieve them. Students may call home if necessary by using the phone available in the school office during lunch or after school. We ask that parents do their best to have plans in place for their student and avoid last minute phone calls to the school.

If an urgent matter arises, please call Mrs. Wood in the school office.

GENERAL COMMUNICATIONS

We invite you to contact us by phone or email whenever you have questions or concerns.

For schedules, logistics, school operations, etc, contact School Secretary, Carolyn Wood.

For academic issues, contact your child's advisor.

For behavior or school culture issues, contact Dean of Students, Matt Leaf.

We do ask you to be considerate about the frequency and length of your requests.

5.12 HOMELESS STUDENTS AND FAMILIES

Four Rivers Charter Public School is open to all students and families in Franklin County and is committed to serving the needs of all our students. The school has specific policies addressing the needs, concerns and rights of homeless students, copies of which are available in the School Office. The homeless education liaison is Kate Conant, Academic Support Director. She may be reached through the School Office for questions or support. Should a Four Rivers student become or be identified as homeless, the homeless education liaison will put the student and his/her family in touch with local and state agencies that provide assistance. She will also make available to that student the same counseling and family support that is available to all students at Four Rivers.

5.13 AGE OF MAJORITY - TRANSFER OF DECISION MAKING AUTHORITY

Massachusetts Law recognizes that a child has reached adulthood upon his or her 18th birthday. When a student turns 18, therefore, all of the decision-making rights that you have as a parent transfer to the adult child unless a court has appointed a legal guardian for your child. The school district must discuss with you and your child the impact of this transfer of rights approximately a year in advance of the student's 18th birthday. As the parent of an adult child, both you and your son or daughter will continue to receive all required notices from the school, and you will continue to have access to your son's or daughter's educational record.

5.15 IN-SCHOOL PROGRAMS FOR PREGNANT STUDENTS

If a student at Four Rivers becomes pregnant, that student is allowed to participate in all programs and services available to all other students

Pregnant students are permitted to remain in regular classes and participate in extracurricular activities with non-pregnant students throughout their pregnancy, and after giving birth are permitted to return to the same academic and extracurricular program as before the leave.

The school does not require a pregnant student to obtain the certification of a physician that the student is physically and emotionally able to continue in school unless it requires such certification for all students for other physical or emotional conditions requiring the attention of a physician.

5.16 LATECOMERS AND VISITORS

Students arriving late must check in at the Office. Parents and other visitors arriving during the day must sign in at the office and pick up a visitor badge which must be displayed while they are on campus. Visitors must return to the office to sign out before departing campus. Any student leaving before regular dismissal time must meet their parent/guardian in the main office in the Farmhouse and be signed out by the parent/guardian, or someone authorized by the parent/guardian.

5.17 LOCKERS

Every student is assigned a locker. Although lockers are school property, each one is the responsibility of the student assigned to use it. They should not be marked, scarred or damaged in any way, nor decorated inappropriately. Only the student assigned to the locker may have access to it. Students may not take things from, or put things in, another student's locker. We want everyone's personal belongings to be safe and respected.

5.18 LUNCH AND SNACK

Lunches are available each day during the designated lunch period (except on some days with 12:00 pm dismissal). The cost of a regular lunch with milk is $3.25, or $0.40 for those who qualify for the reduced price. Milk alone costs $0.60. Credit is not extended for cookies; large cookies cost 75 cents each. Students purchasing the prepared lunch from the menu are expected to keep current with payments. Parents may call Mrs. Wood in the office to discuss payment options to suit their needs. Students may also bring their own lunches, which should be stored in their lockers (no refrigeration is available). Lunch will take place in the Common Room in the High School. We encourage each student to bring a healthy snack for breaks.

5.19 LUNCH/BREAKFAST AND FEES

Payment for Lunch/Breakfast

The cost of a regular lunch with milk is $3.25, or $0.40 for those who qualify for the reduced price. Milk alone costs $0.60. The cost of a regular breakfast with milk/juice is $1.70, or $.30 for those who qualify for the reduced price.

The school tracks what is ordered and bills are emailed to parents every two weeks – beginning September 15th. Payment is expected within a week of receiving the bill.

Paper bills are not mailed home until the outstanding lunch account reaches $30. When the account reaches $45, the student will be unable to purchase further lunches or a la carte items until the bill is paid in full. Payment of any outstanding bill from the previous school year is required prior to being given credit to order lunches starting in the new school year. Prepayment of a few weeks' meals is strongly encouraged.

Free or Reduced Price School Lunch

To apply for free or reduced price school lunch, or to renew for this year, parents need to complete the Free and Reduced Price School Meals Family Application. A determination of eligibility will be made by Greenfield Public Schools' Nutrition Services, which runs our lunch program.

Please read the application and instructions carefully, fill it out and return it to the Main Office by August 23rd. Application information and records of receiving such assistance are maintained in a strictly confidential manner. We encourage you to call Mrs. Wood in the school office if you have further questions.

Reductions for Athletic or School Trip Fees

To apply for reduced fees for sports or school trips, parents must first determine if they are qualified for free or reduced price school lunch (see above). Those who qualify for free or reduced lunch will also qualify for a partial athletic fee reduction.

Lunch Program Details

Greenfield Public Schools' Nutritional Services caters our lunch program with a daily choice of a hot entree, sandwiches, salads, other offerings, and fruit or veggies and milk. Hot meals include a side salad and dessert or fruit. Sandwiches, subs, and wraps usually have meat and/or cheese with lettuce and tomato, a pasta or potato salad. Chef Salads are a fresh variety of vegetables with meat, cheese, or hard-boiled eggs, and a choice of dressings. A vegetarian option is available as a sandwich or Chef Salad as well. A fresh veggie and fruit bar is set up every day. Students may buy lunch on any day, placing their order during the morning advisory/crew period. The menu for each month can be found on: www.fourriverscharter.org.

For students who either buy or bring lunch, a variety of 10 ounce containers of white 2% or chocolate milk is available.

Please look over the "Questions and Answers" about free and reduced price lunches below, and fill out the form if you want to be considered for free or reduced lunch.

Please call Mrs. Wood in the school office with any questions.

5.20 PHYSICAL RESTRAINT POLICY

It is the policy of Four Rivers Charter Schools to utilize verbal and non-verbal behavior management techniques prior to utilizing physical intervention whenever possible. Physical Restraints are only used when needed to protect a student or member of the school community from serious harm. When utilizing a physical restraint, staff will use the least restrictive means to protect the student from self or others. Physical Restraints are used in situations when less restrictive alternatives have failed and safety is of concern. Nothing in the DESE regulation or in Four Rivers School policy and procedure would preclude any teacher, employee or agent of the school from using reasonable force to protect students other staff or themselves from assault or serious physical harm. Four Rivers Charter Public School requires staff to be familiar with the School policy and provides training to staff as required by DESE regulation.

Student Safety: Four Rivers works to foster strong, healthy relationships between faculty/staff and students. Small class size allows teachers to get to know their students well and the Crew program ensures that all students have at least one member of the staff who they can go to in the event of a problem. Crew curriculum focuses on, among other things, building and maintaining good, productive relationships between students. Additionally, the Wellness curriculum in grades 7 - 10 teaches communication and conflict resolution skills. The school uses mediation and disciplinary consequences when conflicts arise between students. Students may also meet with the school's Wellness Advocate if they have a concern about themselves or a peer.

Time Out: Students who are removed from class activities, whether directed to do so or by their own volition, must be supervised during this "time out", Time out may take place in the classroom (inclusionary) or in a different location (exclusionary). Alternate locations for time out must be clean, safe, and appropriate to calming. Doors to time out rooms are to remain unlocked and accessible to students. Time outs lasting more than 30 minutes must be approved by the Principal, Dean of Students, or designee. Time out lasting more than half of the school day will be considered an In School Suspension, regardless of whether the student chose to leave or was told to do so by staff,

Physical Escort: Physical escort is not considered to be physical restraint. Physical escort is defined as a temporary touching or holding, without the use of force, of the hand, wrist, arm, shoulder, or back for the purpose of inducing a student who is agitated to walk to a safe location.

Restraint Prevention: Use of a physical restraint is always a last option and is to be used only if a student presents a clear risk to themselves or others. Before a restraint is used, Four Rivers staff may try any of the following alternative strategies:

1. Check-in
2. Re-direction
3. "Take a Break" in an alternate and supervised space
4. De-escalation skills
5. Removal from classroom setting or asking other students to go to an alternate setting
6. Escort (last resort and preferably done by a member of the Crisis Response Team)

Restraint: Four Rivers Charter Public School personnel shall only use physical restraint for the following reasons:

1. When needed to protect a student and/or staff member of the school community from imminent, serious, physical harm.
2. To prevent or minimize any harm to the student.
3. No other intervention has been or is likely to be effective in averting danger.

Whenever possible, the restraint shall be witnessed by at least one adult who does not participate in the restraint.

A person administering a restraint shall use only the amount of force necessary to protect the student or others from physical injury or harm.

A person administering a restraint shall use the safest method available and appropriate to the situation.

Additional requirements for the use of physical restraint:

1. No restraint shall be administered in such a way that the student is prevented from breathing or speaking. During the administration of a restraint, a staff member shall continuously monitor the physical status of the student, including skin temperature and color, and respiration.
2. Restraint shall be administered in such a way so as to prevent or minimize physical harm. If, at any time during a physical restraint, the student expresses or demonstrates significant physical distress including, but not limited to, difficulty breathing, the student shall be released from the restraint immediately, and school staff shall take steps to seek medical assistance.
3. If a student is restrained for a period longer than 20 minutes, program staff shall obtain the approval of the principal. The approval shall be based upon the student's continued agitation during the restraint justifying the need for continued restraint.
4. Program staff shall review and consider any known medical or psychological limitations, known or suspected trauma history, and/or behavioral intervention plans regarding the use of physical restraint on an individual student.

5. After the release of a student from a restraint, the public education program shall implement follow-up procedures. These procedures shall include reviewing the incident with the student to address the behavior that precipitated the restraint, reviewing the incident with the staff person(s) who administered the restraint to discuss whether proper restraint procedures were followed, and consideration of whether any follow-up is appropriate for students who witnessed the incident.

The following practices are prohibited:

1. Medical Restraint
2. Mechanical Restraint
3. Prone Restraint
4. Restraint that restricts breathing
5. Seclusion
6. Any use of restraint not consistent with CMR 46.00
7. Restraints lasting longer than 20 minutes, unless approved by the Principal.

Training: All Four Rivers staff will receive CPI-based training on verbal and non-verbal de-escalation techniques annually. The Crisis Response Team shall receive initial in-depth training of 16 hours on restraint, including de-escalation and escort. The Crisis response team shall receive annual training to review skills. Only members of the Crisis Response Team may initiate the use of restraint and are considered "principal" when restraints are deemed necessary.

Review and Reporting: In the event of a the use of a restraint, a report must be completed. Staff performing the restraint must verbally inform the principal of the restraint as soon as possible. The report must be submitted no later than the next working school day,. The school must make reasonable effort to verbally inform families of any restraint within 24 hours. A written notification (email or regular mail) must be sent to families within 3 working school days of the use of restraint. The written report required by 603 CMR 46.06(2) and (3) shall include:

1. The name of the student; the names and job titles of the staff who administered the restraint, and observers, if any; the date of the restraint; the time the restraint began and ended; and the name of the principal or designee who was verbally informed following the restraint; and, as applicable, the name of the principal or designee who approved continuation of the restraint beyond 20 minutes pursuant to 603 CMR 46.05(5)(c).
2. A description of the activity in which the restrained student and other students and staff in the same room or vicinity were engaged immediately preceding the use of physical restraint; the behavior that prompted the restraint; the efforts made to prevent escalation of behavior, including the specific de-escalation strategies used; alternatives to restraint that were attempted; and the justification for initiating physical restraint.
3. A description of the administration of the restraint including the holds used and reasons such holds were necessary; the student's behavior and reactions during the restraint; how the restraint ended; and documentation of injury to the student and/or staff, if any, during the restraint and any medical care provided.
4. Information regarding any further action(s) that the school has taken or may take, including any consequences that may be imposed on the student.
5. Information regarding opportunities for the student's parents to discuss with school officials the administration of the restraint, any consequences that may be imposed on the student, and any other related matter.

In the event that a restraint is used on a student, the school will convene a meeting with the parents/guardians of the student and the student to review the incident and discuss ways to prevent the use of restraint in the future.

If the administration of physical restraint results in an injury to a student or to staff, regardless of the seriousness of the injury, the written report must be submitted to DESE no later than three school days after administration of the restraint.

The Crisis Response Team and principal will review any restraint data weekly (especially for students involved in multiple restraints) and monthly.

The school must submit an annual report of restraint data to the DESE.

5.24 SAFETY LETTER--KEEPING OUR KIDS SAFE

Written by Family Council March 2006, reaffirmed May 2010.

The Family Council, with full support of the school administration and in keeping with the tradition of community, trust, and respect at Four Rivers Charter Public School, strongly encourages families to communicate with one another using the published School Phone List. As our sons/daughters grow, it becomes more difficult to monitor all their activities. It is our hope that parents/guardians will feel comfortable calling each other to support/confirm appropriate supervision is provided while our son/daughters are not under our own supervision. Student plans are often fluid, flexible, and occasionally made without adult input. If your son/daughter is visiting, know that it's ok to call to be sure that a gathering or party will be actively supervised. Exposure to, and experimentation with alcohol, tobacco, marijuana or other drugs is a difficult, challenging, and real fact of life in our culture. Safety first.

The goal is to have a strong community of families that support each other to keep our students (sons/daughters) safe and healthy with the following guidelines in mind.

1. When other friends visit, it's important to let them know that the possession or use of alcohol, tobacco, marijuana, or other drugs will not be tolerated/allowed, and that parents will be called. Safety first.
2. Four Rivers Charter Public School hopes that parents will call and accept calls from other parents freely, without judgment. Be an open listener.
3. We encourage parents to let their son/daughters know that a call to a parent for a ride will always be responded to positively if they find themselves in a situation that is unsafe or uncomfortable. Safety first, questions later.

4. If your son/daughter is a passenger or driver of a car when there has been alcohol or drugs in use, they should always call a parent or other adult for a ride regardless of the hour of day or night. Safety first, questions later.

While these are just some suggestions about how to keep our sons and daughters safe, please have conversations with your children about what to do before something happens. What are your family's expectations? Help them by guiding them to be best prepared in any situation. Safety first!

5.25 SCHOOL CANCELLATION

Four Rivers will follow the lead of the Greenfield Public Schools in determining when school should be cancelled, delayed or dismissed early due to harsh weather conditions. Information about cancellation or delayed opening will also be posted on the School Events calendar. The school uses an automated calling system to notify families of cancellations due to weather or other emergencies. Information is also listed on local radio and TV stations. When Greenfield has not cancelled or delayed opening, but weather in other parts of Franklin County presents dangerous driving conditions, parents should use their own discretion about sending their students to school.

5.26 SCHOOL INFORMATION IN LANGUAGES OTHER THAN ENGLISH

Four Rivers seeks to be accessible by all families in Franklin County and beyond, which at times includes families who speak a language other than English.

At present, only our school brochure has been translated into Spanish and Romanian. Under the school's new Recruitment and Retention Plan, these brochures will be distributed to area community organizations that might serve a Spanish-speaking population.

The school will seek to provide oral translation for any parent who might need that service either to learn about the school or to participate in conferences or school events.

5.27 SOLICITATION AND DISTRIBUTION POLICY

In order to prevent disruption of school operations, ensure a productive and secure environment and create an environment conducive to teaching and learning, the school has established the following rules governing the solicitation of individuals and the distribution of materials on Four Rivers Charter Public School ("School") property.

The solicitation, distribution of literature, or trespassing by non-employees is prohibited on School property. It is the policy of the School to treat all of its property as a non-public forum. Non-School-sponsored events or announcements may be posted for a limited time in a publicly visible bulletin board designated for that purpose only if it is determined by the Principal that the requested posting is of general interest and value to the School community.

USE OF THE SCHOOL MAIL SYSTEM

Use of the School's mail system is reserved for School related business and internal communications between employees. Use of the School internal mail and e-mail system by non-employees is prohibited.

5.28 STUDENT FEES POLICY

We do our best to create a budget that pays for the operations of our school. There are times, however, when activities require an additional fee. The purpose of this policy is to ensure that low income students are not excluded from participation because of such fees.

1. There are two kinds of fees covered under this policy:
  - a. Fees for Academic Activities: These activities are part of the core academic program and all students are expected to participate. This category includes the 10th grade Washington DC Trip and the Senior trip to Star Island.
  - b. Fees for Voluntary Activities: These activities are not part of the core academic program -- such as yearbooks or dances -- and so fee reductions are not guaranteed.
2. SUBSIDIES
  - a. Need-based fee reductions are available if a family qualifies under the Free and Reduced Lunch Program financial guidelines. Confidential forms are available through the School Secretary, to be filled out once a year to determine eligibility.
  - b. Students whose families qualify for reduced lunch may pay two-thirds of the fee.
  - c. Students whose families qualify for free lunch may pay one-third of the fee.
3. PAYING YOUR BILLS
  - a. The school tracks lunch orders and emails bills to parents every two weeks – beginning September 6th.
  - b. Payment is expected within a week of receiving the emailed bill. Paper bills are not mailed home until the outstanding lunch account reaches $30.
  - c. When the account reaches $45, the student will be unable to purchase further lunches or a la carte items until the bill is paid in full.
  - d. Cash or check (made out to Four Rivers) can be dropped off at the main office. The school also offers an online payment option: www.myschoolbucks.com
  - e. Payment of any outstanding bill from the previous school year is required prior to being given credit to order lunches starting the next year. This has been necessitated by unpaid fees.
  - f. Prepayment of a few weeks' meals is strongly encouraged. Other student fees need to be paid before the start of the activity, or according to a specified payment plan.

Please note that we have removed all fees from our Intensives options so that students would not have to choose programs based on cost.

Four Rivers Charter Public School depends on adequate funding to maintain this Need-Based Fee Waiver program and reserves the right to add or remove activities or alter the program as circumstances dictate.

5.29 STRUCTURED LEARNING TIME

Four Rivers ensures that our structured learning time is time during which students are engaged in regularly scheduled instruction, learning, or assessments within the curriculum of core subjects and other subjects as defined in 603 CMR 27.02 (including physical education, required by M.G.L. c. 71, s. 3).

The school's structured learning time may include

1. Directed study (activities directly related to a program of studies, with a teacher available to assist students) – which we call Academic Support and Challenge
2. Independent study (a rigorous, individually designed program under the direction of a teacher, assigned a grade and credit), when approved and overseen through a process led by the Assistant Principal
3. Technology-assisted learning, when approved and overseen through a process led by the Assistant Principal
4. Presentations by persons other than teachers, school-to-work programs, and statewide student performance assessments.
5. Courses offered through other institutions, including Greenfield Community College and Virtual High School.

The Assistant Principal oversees all programs of independent study, online learning, or learning through the world of work. The Assistant Principal approves, oversees, and guides the assessment and documentation of all such programs.

The school ensures that its structured learning time does not include time at lunch, passing between classes, in morning crew, at recess, in non-directed study periods (study halls), participating in optional school programs, or receiving school services such as health screening, speech, or physical and occupational therapy, except where those services are prescribed by a student's IEP or Section 504 Accommodation Plan.

The hours spent in any type of structured learning time are verified by the school. Where the school counts independent study or a school-to-work program as structured learning time, it has guidelines that explain clearly how hours spent by students are verified.

5.30 TEXTBOOKS

Texts and other books are issued to students, and these will be an important -- but not the only -- resource for learning. They remain school property and must be well cared for throughout the year. STUDENTS ARE REQUESTED TO COVER ALL TEXTBOOKS. Parents will be charged a fee for lost or damaged books belonging to Four Rivers.

5.31 THE PARKING LOT

There is one simple rule we've set up for our parking lot at drop-off and pick-up: park right, pass left. That means people can drop off students anywhere around the circle in the morning, just as you pick them up. You don't have to line up and wait until you get to the High School or the Middle School. One other tip for the morning -- if you're turning right out of the school's driveway, you can go around the bus circle and avoid the line that's turning left. There are still people who stop in the left lane, which holds up everyone behind you. Please pull over to the right to pick up or drop off. You can also use the front circle to drop off in the morning. As always, common courtesy should govern.

A SPECIAL VIDEO ON THE PARKING LOT! DROP-OFF AND PICK-UP:

Please do your best to follow a few simple rules for our parking lot so we can keep it safe and efficient without having to hire traffic monitors to supervise.

PARK RIGHT, PASS LEFT. There is room for two lanes around the parking lot. If you are stopping to drop off or pick up, move over to the right where you can find a space -- just like at the airport. Then pull back out to the left in order to leave. Please do not stop to pick up in the left lane -- we're trying to keep that lane flowing as much as possible.

YIELD. Students and others are crossing to the middle or far side of the parking lot, so please stop to let them cross.

PATIENCE. Your calm cooperation will make everything work much better.

Further tips: If exiting to the right in the morning, go around the U to split up the exiting lane. If parking, back in when it's quiet so you can pull out more easily when it's busier.
